

Our Mission

The Colorado River Women's Council (CRWC) provides a community leadership role through our numerous sponsor-based programs. These programs provide education and services to assist school age children, qualifying residents, and small businesses to improve the quality of life as prescribed within the scope of each program. Communities served are the Tri-State area, which include Bullhead City, Laughlin, Needles, Fort Mohave, and Mohave Valley.

Our Purpose and Objectives

The purpose of the CRWC is to offer financial support, guidance, and education to enhance growth and development, provide safety initiatives and encouragement for residents, small businesses, and school aged children within the Tri-State Area. To accomplish this, we incorporate the following programs with our CRWC board of directors overseeing each of our programs.

FUND RAISING EVENTS

- Raise funds through annual community wide events, Western Auction, Boom Box Parade and Corporate Sponsorships, to fund our community service-based programs within the Tri-State Area.

DISBURSEMENT

- All funds raised support our Tri-State Area individuals via grants, scholarships, community service requests and through each of our community-based programs.

501(c)3 NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION

- Colorado River Women's Council is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. Your donation should be tax deductible under section 170 of the Tax Code.

ANNUAL SIGNATURE EVENTS

WESTERN AUCTION

• The Western Auction is a fun filled, western themed fundraising event, with music, dancing, B-B-Q, both live and silent auction items, and the famed quarter auction. Lest not forget, you could be thrown in the 'make-shift' jail! The only way out is to ante up and pay the sheriff.

BOOM BOX PARADE

• The Spirit of Giving parade is held the first Friday in December. The parade route is along Hancock Road from River Gardens to Trane Road. The Boom Box parade benefits the entire community and provides an opportunity for everyone to come together and focus on 'giving', while celebrating the wonders of the season.
