

Travel Ready™ Visa Readiness Report (Sample)

Applicant: Sarah Patel

Passport: India

Canadian Status: Permanent Resident

Destination: Mexico

Purpose: Tourism

Travel Dates: August 10–24, 2026

Visa Readiness Score

87 / 100

 GOOD READINESS

Your application appears well prepared. A few improvements are recommended before submission.

Documents Reviewed

 Passport (Valid)

 Canadian PR Card

 Employment Letter

 3 Months Bank Statements

 Flight Itinerary

 Travel History Evidence

 Hotel Reservation Missing

 Travel Insurance Missing

Risk Flags

 Accommodation not yet confirmed

Visa officers generally expect evidence of accommodation arrangements.

Recent Large Bank Deposit

A recent unexplained deposit may prompt additional review. Supporting documentation is recommended.

Officer's Read™

Based on the documents provided, the applicant demonstrates stable employment, sufficient financial resources, and a credible travel purpose.

The primary concern is the absence of accommodation documentation. Providing hotel reservations or proof of accommodation would strengthen the application.

Overall application strength: Moderate to Strong

Recommended Actions

1. Upload hotel reservation confirmation.
 2. Obtain travel medical insurance.
 3. Provide explanation for recent large deposit (if applicable).
 4. Ensure all travel dates are consistent across documents.
-

Travel Ready Assessment

Approval Readiness: HIGH

The application demonstrates strong financial and employment ties. Addressing the identified gaps may improve overall application quality and reduce the likelihood of additional document requests.

This report is an informational readiness assessment and does not guarantee visa issuance. Final decisions are made by the relevant immigration authority.