Wisconsin United For Freedom Endorses Rebecca Kleefisch for Governor

Wisconsin United for Freedom (WUFF), Wisconsin's largest freedom-focused organization, formally announces its endorsement of Rebecca Kleefisch for Wisconsin Governor.

"In evaluating pre-primary endorsements, we looked at two pieces of criteria. First, who has the ability to beat Tony Evers in the general election, and secondly, of those candidates, who has the strongest record on promoting freedom for all Wisconsinites," said Erin Runk, co-founder of WUFF. "We believe that Rebecca is that candidate, having a clear pro-freedom record as Lieutenant Governor, and her commitment to sign protective legislation to ban coercive vaccine mandates and protect medical freedom. Further, The Kleefisch Campaign demonstrated its commitment to respecting parents' rights by actively supporting parent groups across the state in the fight to unmask our children and regain control of school boards. We believe Rebecca is the leader we need to ensure our children remain healthy, free, and thriving."
