

Kaneohe Troop 329

Assistant Scoutmaster Frank Young

Frank Young became an Assistant Scoutmaster for Troop 329 in 2014.

Mr. Young grew up in Manoa. He attended Manoa Elementary, Kamehameha Intermediate and Kamehameha High School.

Mr. Young earned a degree in Stage Design and Technology from Whittier College.

Mr. Young joined the Honolulu Theatre for Youth after college and worked as the Assistant Technical Director for three years.

Mr. Young now works for the Department of Public Safety and has held several positions since 1996. He is currently the Division Administrator for the Intake Service Centers.

Mr. Young is married to Beth and his son Victor, is currently a Life Scout in Troop 329.

Although new to scouting, Mr. Young began hiking and camping back in high school. Many of the life skills he learned then are found in today's scouting program. Mr. Young believes that scouting offers invaluable experiences for youth to gain their independence and become the leaders of tomorrow.
