

Kaneohe Troop 329

Assistant Scoutmaster Richard Moriyama

Richard “Chez” Moriyama became an Assistant Scoutmaster for Troop 329 in 2015.

Mr. Moriyama grew up in Honolulu. He attended LikeLike Elementary, Central Intermediate, and McKinley High School.

Mr. Moriyama earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Food Science/Hotel Management and Army ROTC Commission at the University of Hawaii Manoa.

He also earned a Bachelor of Science in Physician Assistant at Hahnemann University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Physician Assistant Master’s degree from the University of Nebraska.

Mr. Moriyama joined the military after high school, where he has worked in jet engine mechanics, infantry, field artillery and field medicine. He has been deployed three times to the Persian Gulf Region and retired after serving 37 years.

Mr. Moriyama is currently working at the Schofield Barracks Soldier Readiness Process (SRP) and troop clinic as a physician assistant.

He joined Troop 329 in hopes of supporting both the leaders and scouts by providing positive leadership, safe outdoor adventures, and character development opportunities.
