Happy Birthday to members born in August & September

September 7 is National Grandparents' Day!

According to Wikipedia, this special holiday was celebrated for the first time in 1965 in Poland. Although Germany does not celebrate this day, they do have Grandmothers' Day, which was established in 2010. It is on the second Sunday in October. It seems only the US celebrates National Grandparents' Day in September. Most other countries celebrate this day in January, June, October or November.
