

appearances jeopardize the health and safety of litigants, attorneys, judges, court staff, and members of the public; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to this Court's orders on March 4 and 18, 2020, and April 13, 2020, many Washington courts have taken important steps to protect public health while ensuring continued access to justice and essential court services, including by strictly observing social distancing measures, holding proceedings remotely, suspending many in-building operations, and promulgating emergency rules as necessary; and

WHEREAS, the coordinated response from Washington courts to prevent the further spread of COVID-19 must be continued beyond the timeframes in this Court's prior orders while allowing courts to operate effectively and maintain effective and equitable access to justice; and

WHEREAS, this Court's consultation with trial courts, justice partners and coordinate branches of government confirms the need for further direction from this Court by issuing an order that revises and supersedes its prior orders; and

WHEREAS, the presiding judges across Washington need direction and authority to effectively administer their courts in response to this state of emergency, including authority to adopt, modify, and suspend court rules and orders as warranted to address the emergency conditions.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the Supreme Court's authority to administer justice and to ensure the safety of court personnel, litigants, and the public,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

With Respect to Civil Matters:

1. All civil jury trials remain suspended until at least July 6, 2020. Trials already in session where a jury has been sworn and social distancing and other public health measures are strictly observed may proceed or, at the discretion of the trial court or agreement of the parties, be continued to a later date. Nonjury trials may be conducted by remote means or in person with strict observance of social distancing and other public health measures.
2. Non-emergency civil matters may be continued until after June 1, 2020. However, courts should begin to hear non-emergency civil matters, so long as such matters can appropriately be conducted by telephone, video or other remote means, or in person with strict observance of social distancing and other public health measures.
3. Courts shall continue to prioritize and hear all emergency civil matters that can be heard by telephone, video, or other remote means, or in person with strict observance of social distancing and other public health measures.
4. Courts shall continue to hear emergency civil protection order and restraining order matters. Courts must provide an accessible process for filing petitions for civil protection orders and motions for temporary restraining orders, which may include filing petitions in person or remotely. Courts are encouraged to provide alternative means for filing, including electronic filing options whenever possible, especially when the courthouse is closed to the public or public clerk's office hours are restricted due to the public health emergency.

a. Consistent with the Governor's Proclamation 20-45 (Apr. 10, 2020), requirements for personal service of the petition for a protection order or temporary protection order are suspended, except as to orders directing the surrender of weapons or removal of the respondent from a shared residence. Personal service remains preferred, and courts should require personal service by law enforcement when removal of children or change of custody of children is ordered, or in other circumstances where public or individual safety demands it. Where personal service is not required, service may be by law enforcement, including electronic service with acknowledgment of receipt, by process servers, by agreed service memorialized in writing, by publication or by mail. If parties have previously agreed to e-mail service or opted into e-service in the case or other currently open related case, service of temporary protection orders or reissuance/continuance orders by e-mail or e-service shall be sufficient. Before proceeding with a full hearing, the judicial officer must require proof of service five days prior to the hearing.

b. Judicial officers have discretion to set hearing dates and extend temporary protection orders based on the circumstances to reasonably allow for sufficient notice, remote appearance, and presentation of evidence, while avoiding unreasonable delay. Whenever possible, statutory timeframes suspended under Proclamation 20-45 (Apr. 10, 2020) should be followed. Circumstances relevant to the setting of hearing dates include agreement of the parties, reasonable estimates for completing service, lack of prejudice, and specific findings of good cause, which may include restrictions in place due to the public health emergency. Reissuance orders may be similarly extended. Courts may provide a means for weapons surrender hearings that does not require in-person appearance only when consistent with public safety.

- c. Guidance for courts implementing emergency measures under this section may be found here.
5. With respect to all civil matters, courts should encourage parties to stipulate in writing to reasonable modifications of existing case schedules and methods of service and to conduct discovery by remote means whenever possible.

With Respect to Criminal and Juvenile Offender Matters:

6. All criminal jury trials remain suspended until at least July 6, 2020. Trials already in session where a jury has been sworn and social distancing and other public health measures are strictly observed may proceed or be continued if the defendant agrees to a continuance. Nonjury trials may be conducted by remote means or in person with strict observance of social distancing and other public health measures.
7. Out of custody criminal and juvenile offender matters may be continued until after June 1, 2020, except (1) those motions, actions on agreed orders, status conferences or other proceedings that can appropriately be conducted by telephone, video or other means that does not require in-person attendance; and (2) matters that require in-person attendance but should in the interests of justice be heard immediately, provided that any such hearings must strictly comply with current public health mandates. Arraignment on out of custody criminal and juvenile offender cases filed between March 18, 2020 and July 3, 2020 may be deferred until a date 45 days after the filing of charges. Good cause exists under CrR 4.1 and CrRLJ 4.1 and JuCR 7.6 to extend the arraignment dates. The new arraignment date shall be considered the “initial commencement date” for purposes of establishing the time for trial under CrR 3.3(c)(1), CrRLJ 3.3(c)(1) and JuCR 7.8(c)(1). Nothing in this section requires suspension of any proceeding, including therapeutic court proceedings, that can appropriately be conducted by telephone, video or other means that does not require in-person attendance.

8. Courts may enter ex parte no contact orders pursuant to RCW 10.99.040, RCW 10.99.045, RCW 7.92.160, RCW 7.90.150, RCW 9A.46.085, and/or RCW 9A.46.040, when an information, citation, or complaint is filed with the court, either by summons or warrant, and the court finds that probable cause is present for a sex offense, domestic violence offense, stalking offense, or harassment offense. Ex parte orders may be served upon the defendant by mail or by electronic means of service. This provision does not relieve the prosecution of proving a knowing violation of such an ex parte order in any prosecution for violating the order. Good cause exists for courts to extend ex parte orders beyond the initial period until a hearing can be held.
9. In custody criminal and juvenile offender matters may be continued until after June 1, 2020, with the following exceptions:
  - a. Scheduling and hearing of first appearances, arraignments, plea hearings, criminal motions, and sentencing or disposition hearings.

b. Courts retain discretion in the scheduling of these matters, except that the following matters shall take priority:

- i. Pretrial release and bail modification motions.
- ii. Plea hearings and sentencing or disposition hearings that result in the anticipated release of the defendant or respondent from pretrial detention within 30 days of the hearing.
- iii. Parties are not required to file motions to shorten time in scheduling any of these matters.

10. Juvenile court jurisdiction in all pending offender proceedings and in all cases in which an information is filed with the juvenile court prior to June 1, 2020, in which the offender will reach the age of 18 within 120 days of May 4, 2020, shall be extended to the offender's next scheduled juvenile court hearing after June 1, 2020.

11. A continuance of these criminal and juvenile offender hearings and trials is required in the administration of justice. Based upon the court's finding that the serious danger posed by COVID-19 is good cause to continue criminal and juvenile offender trials, and constitutes an unavoidable circumstance under CrR 3.3(e)(8), CrRLJ 3.3(e)(8), and JuCR 7.8(e)(7), the time between the date of this Order and September 1, 2020 shall be EXCLUDED when calculating time for trial. CrR 3.3(e)(3), CrRLJ 3.3(e)(3), JuCR 7.8(e)(3).

12. The Court finds that obtaining signatures from defendants or respondents for orders continuing existing matters places significant burdens on attorneys, particularly public defenders and all attorneys who must enter correctional facilities to obtain signatures in person. Therefore, this Order serves to authorize continuing those matters without need for further written orders. Additionally:

- a. Defense counsel is not required to obtain signatures from defendants or respondents on orders to continue criminal or juvenile offender matters through June 1, 2020.
- b. Courts shall provide notice of new hearing dates to defense counsel and unrepresented defendants.
- c. Defense counsel shall provide notice to defendants and respondents of new court dates.

13. Bench warrants may continue to issue for violations of conditions of release. However, courts should not issue bench warrants for failure to appear in-person for criminal or juvenile offender court hearings and pretrial supervision meetings unless necessary for the immediate preservation of public or individual safety. Additionally, courts should not issue or enforce bench warrants for juvenile status offenses or violations.

14. Motions for Pre-Trial Release:

- a. Courts shall hear motions for pretrial release in criminal and juvenile offender matters on an expedited basis without requiring a motion to shorten time. Nothing in this section is intended to affect any statutory or constitutional provision regarding the rights of victims or witnesses.

- b. The Court finds that for those identified as part of a vulnerable or at-risk population by the Centers for Disease Control, COVID-19 is presumed to be a material change in circumstances, and the parties do not need to supply additional briefing on COVID-19 to the court. For all other cases, the COVID-19 crisis may constitute a “material change in circumstances” and “new information” allowing amendment of a previous bail order or providing different conditions of release under CrR 3.2(k)(1) or CrRLJ 3.2(k)(1), but a finding of changed circumstances in any given case is left to the sound discretion of the trial court. Under such circumstances in the juvenile division of superior court, the court may conduct a new detention hearing pursuant to JuCR 7.4.
  - c. Parties may present agreed orders for release of in-custody defendants and respondents, which should be considered expeditiously.
  - d. If a hearing is required for a vulnerable or at-risk person as identified above, the court shall schedule such hearing within five days. The court is strongly encouraged to expedite hearings on other cases with due consideration of the rights of witnesses and victims to participate.
15. Courts must allow telephonic or video appearances for all scheduled criminal and juvenile offender hearings whenever possible. For all hearings that involve a critical stage of the proceedings, courts shall provide a means for defendants and respondents to have the opportunity for private and continual discussion with their attorney.

General Provisions for Court Operations:

16. Access to justice must be protected during emergency court operations. Where individuals are required to access the court through remote means, courts must provide no-cost options for doing so or provide a means for seeking a waiver of costs. This provision does not require suspending existing systems for remote filings or hearings that are based on a user-fee model.
17. Courts must provide clear notice to the public of restricted court hours and operations, as well as information on how individuals seeking emergency relief may access the courts. Courts are encouraged to provide such notice in the most commonly used languages in Washington, and to make every effort to timely provide translation or interpretation into other languages upon request. The Washington State Supreme Court Interpreter Commission may assist courts in this process.
18. The availability of interpreter services should not be restricted by emergency operations. Interpreting should be done by remote means whenever possible, consistent with protocols developed by the Washington State Supreme Court Interpreter Commission.
19. Washington courts are committed to protecting rights to public court proceedings. Any limitations placed on public access to court proceedings due to the public health emergency must be consistent with the legal analysis required under State v. Bone Club, 128 Wn.2d 254 (1995) and The Seattle Times v. Ishikawa, 97 Wn.2d 30 (1982). Courts should continue to record remote hearings and to make the recording or a transcript part of the record, and should develop protocols for allowing public observation of video or telephonic hearings. Guidance for courts in protecting public court proceedings during emergency operations can be found here.

20. Notwithstanding any provision of GR 30 to the contrary, an electronic signature shall be deemed a reliable means for authentication of documents and shall have the same force and effect as an original signature to a paper copy of the document so signed. For purposes of this Order, “electronic signature” means a digital signature as described in Supreme Court Order No. 25700-B-596 (July 16, 2019) and RCW 9A.72.085(5) (repealed); an electronic image of the handwritten signature of an individual; or other electronic sound, symbol, or process, attached to or logically associated with an electronic record and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the record, including but not limited to “/s/ [name of signatory]”.

a. To the extent not already authorized, whenever a judicial officer or clerk is required to sign an order, judgment, notification, or other document an electronic signature shall be sufficient. The presiding judge, in consultation with the county clerk where applicable, should direct by administrative order the provisions for use of alternative signature methods for judicial officers in that jurisdiction. Guidance in developing such orders may be found here.

b. Courts are authorized and are hereby encouraged when practicable to waive by emergency rule or order provisions of GR 30(d) that require: (1) the issuance of a user ID and password to electronically file documents with the court or clerk; (2) that a party who has filed electronically or has provided the clerk with their email address must give consent to accept electronic transmissions from the court.

21. This Court recognizes that there are procedural issues in juvenile, dependency, involuntary commitment, child support, and other matters that may not be encompassed in this Order. Nothing in this Order limits other interested parties in submitting similar orders tailored to the unique circumstances of those matters and any other matters not addressed by this Order. Nothing in this Order prevents courts from following specific emergency plans for such matters, including for Involuntary Treatment Act and dependency matters. Where any provisions of this Order may be interpreted to conflict with any provision of another Supreme Court order addressing specific case matters, such as dependency and termination matters, the provisions of the more specific order shall control.
22. Nothing in this Order limits the authority of courts to adopt measures to protect health and safety that are more restrictive than this Order, as circumstances warrant, including by extending as necessary the time frames in this Order. However, courts are encouraged to move toward conducting as much court business as can be done consistent with public health and safety. Any summons issued for jury trials must provide a process for excusing or delaying jury service by individuals who are at higher risk from COVID-19 exposure based on their age or existing health conditions, or those of a household member. Courts should follow the most protective public health guidance applicable in their jurisdiction, based on current guidelines from the Centers for Disease Control, the Washington Department of Health or their local health department.

23. The Supreme Court may extend the time frames in this Order as required by continuing public health emergency, and if necessary, will do so by further order. This Order and other applicable emergency orders may be deemed part of the record in affected cases for purposes of appeal without the need to file the orders in each case, and all time frames previously extended may be deemed further extended by this order. This revised and extended Order supersedes the Supreme Court's March 18, 2020 order (as corrected March 19, 2020), its March 20, 2020 amended order, and its April 13, 2020 Extended and Revised Order.

DATED at Olympia, Washington this 29th day of April, 2020.

For the Court
