We'll finish with Roll Call and Tri Delta's candle lighting ceremony.

Forward this invitation to any Tri Delta you think would like to join us. We hope that you will be able to attend some if not all of the weekend's events as we welcome almost 200 women to our sisterhood and celebrate the beginning of their lifetime membership in Tri Delta. ## Delta Omega Wins National Award!

Last week at the Collegiate Leadership Conference for Tri Delta, Delta Omega received the Margaret Paddock Haller Award for the Most Outstanding Chapter.

The Delta Omega chapter received high praise not only for being one of the first chapters to pilot the new officer structure but executing the structure extremely well.

The new officer structure is now being implemented at all chapters across the nation, and everyone is turning to LSU for guidance.

Blake Sullivan said "I can confidently say the five of us felt extremely grateful to be part of the Delta Omega chapter; we truly have some of the best members, officers, alumnae, and advisors. Thank you all for being great members and officers during your time as collegians, and supporters or advisors as alumnae; we wouldn't be the chapter we are today if it weren't for all of you."

The five officers that attended CLC were: Maddie Burk – Collegiate Chapter President, Blake Sullivan – VP of Operations, Catherine Humphrey – VP of Membership Experience, Caroline Naquin – Director of Philanthropy, Lucy Chancellor – Director of First Year Experience
