Adopt a Pearl

This was a new program last year. Alums are matched with out of state New Members. There will be a meet & greet at the Tri Delta House for alums to meet their "Pearls". Then we ask that you be a person they can reach out to if they need advise for a doctor, car repair, etc. Alums reach out to their Pearls periodically & during mid terms, finals, with a phone call or motivational text.

If you would like to Adopt a Pearl please email trideltasufye@gmail.com

It's Membership Season!

September 10th and 11th - The chapter is hosting its first 15K in a Day Event. This is an online fundraising campaign in which the chapter has set a goal of raising $15,000 for St. Jude in 24 hours. There will be more information on the Tri Delta LSU Facebook as well as a link to donate as the event gets closer so please like the Tri Delta LSU Facebook page (if you haven't already) and stay tuned for more information. They hope to exceed their goal of $15,000, and really appreciate any support from alums in this effort! Here is the link to the Tri Delta LSU Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/trideltalsu/>

Friday, October 11th from 7:00 – 9:30 p.m., St. Jude Soiree @ Renaissance Hotel.

There will be live and silent auctions as well as a Kendra Scott trunk show. Auction items include a purebred 8-week old yellow lab, sports memorabilia, sporting event tickets, a one-week stay at a Gulf Shores condo, art, a fishing charter trip, and much more. If you would like to donate something to be auctioned at the event, or if you would like to make a monetary donation to help offset event costs, please see the attached Soiree Sponsorship Packet for more information. If you have any questions about any of the upcoming philanthropy events, please contact the chapter's philanthropy director, Caroline Cazayoux at trideltasuphlanthropy@gmail.com, or the chapter's philanthropy advisor, Caroline Darwin, at caroline.darwin@taylorporter.com.
