Code of Ethics

Student Behavior:

- FFA members are expected to respect the authority and direction of all teachers and representatives of all Agricultural Department events and activities.
- FFA members are expected to be held accountable for their actions and that communication between advisors and administration will occur when violations are made.
- All FFA exhibitors are expected to conduct themselves in a cooperative and courteous manner while participating and representing the BCHS FFA chapter at FFA sanctioned events, fairs, and shows.

FFA Members, who wish to have the privilege of participating in FFA activities within the BCHS FFA Chapter including but not limited to; all Local, Sectional, Regional, State or National events including all County/State Livestock Expositions, Fairs and Shows, must conduct themselves in accordance with the Conduct Policy. A violation of this code of conduct or code of ethics before, during, or after participation in any recognized FFA event and or activity will result in the removal of the member and the project from the event, activity, and/or fair and show. All violations will be reported to the BCHS Administration for further action under the school's conduct policy and the member/exhibitor understands that his/her future participation in the FFA may be limited and or prohibited for a period of time or for its entirety. A meeting of the member, parent/guardian, advisor, and administration will be held to determine future standing of member eligibility.

Code of Showing Ethics:

Student exhibitors represent more than themselves. Both good and bad behavior reflects parents, leaders, schools, and the entire FFA organization. Any student who breaks the code of Ethics or allows another person (adult or peer) to talk them into violating the code of ethics agrees to forfeit all awards on that entry and membership will be in question based on the findings and decision of the site administrators.

- Students and or parents who risk the reputation of the BCHS FFA Chapter and BCHS High School before, during and or after an event, shall be held accountable for their actions by possible removal from the FFA Chapter and the Agriculture Program.
- All food animals raised and shown by BCHS FFA students shall be safe for consumers, and shall have met all withdrawal times for all medications, and be free of drug residue. Any animal found to have been changed in appearance, and or performance, shall be in violation of the BCHS FFA Code of Ethics. Student exhibitors and or parents will be subject to removal from the FFA program or face consequences for such actions as assessed by FFA advisors and school administration.
- By entering an exhibit in any fair or show you accept any disciplinary action taken for any violation of this Code of Ethics and any other rules of the competition of the fair without recourse against management including advisors, school administration, and fair officials.
- Students are not to be involved in any illegal activities while participating in FFA events, including but not limited to alcohol, tobacco, drug or firearm use.
- Students who cannot exhibit/show their entry for any reason will notify the advisor immediately and make arrangements for a substitute showman if applicable.
- Any protest consideration presented by any parent or student representing the BCHS FFA Chapter must be approved by the advisor of the chapter and or advisor of the project. All protests are subject to administration approval.

I agree to conduct myself in an honest, ethical, and upstanding manner. I understand that disciplinary actions will result if these rules are violated. I understand that I am expected to represent the program in a positive manner. I have read and understand this Code of Ethics and any other rules of competition.
