Young Eagles Success Club
"YES" Club Core Group

Dear Carl,

Congratulations on your 13th successful year at the Illinois State Fair's Park District Conservation Day, and an additional congratulations on being awarded the Rockford Park District "Distinguished Service" Award.

It takes hard work, dedication, drive and, above all, a commitment to bettering yourself and your community to accomplish all the "YES" Club has attained over the years. The talent you have masterfully orchestrated to reach this point is admirable and has undoubtedly improved the lives of many youth in the Rockford area. You and your club should be immensely proud – as I am of all of you.

I look forward to welcoming the "YES" Club to the Illinois State Fair next year and wish you success with all your upcoming projects.

Sincerely,

Greetings Friends:

It is my honor to recognize the Young Eagles Success (YES) club on over 40 years of serving the community youth.

The organizations continuous work on promoting positive character development in today's youth through the various programs focused on academic achievement, positive relationships, and music helps bring more unity and solidarity to our community. It is organizations like the YES club that bring us closer together and make an impact on our future.

I wish you all the best on in the organization's future, and cannot wait to see what brilliant results these efforts bring.

Sincerely,

Tammy Duckworth
United States Senator
