TRANSITIONAL SEASONS

Definition:

A transitional time – is the period of time during which something changes from one stage or season to another.

Appointed by God – Ecclesiastes tells us: “to everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven.

It is important to focus on what God is doing in your life during this season.

It is a time of testing or challenge and will make us uncomfortable.

It is a time that always reveals character

Transitional seasons can bring out the worst in us

Bitterness, frustration, distrust or any other character trait that is revealed did not just show up during the season of transition, but it gets exposed there.

We need the season of transition to become aware of negative character traits so we can bring what is revealed to the Lord at the cross for cleansing and healing.

Seasons of transition require a greater trust in God.

It is important to remember your history with God

Many times transitional seasons come right before we are released into our purpose, destiny or increase and blessing.
