

We Started Ruth in the Month of Elul when the King was in the field

The Threshing Floor – Ox crush the barley to separate the grain from the stalk

Winnowing – the grain is thrown up in the air for the breezes to blow away the chaff.

The grain is sifted to remove the dirt, manure and small stones

Boaz in the field on the threshing floor – the Master of the field watches over his grain