

Mayberry, Colorado Springs

Isabella Goodson

Isabella Goodson is the Director of Marketing and Leasing for Foley Development. She directs, manages, and implements company marketing and branding strategies and developed property specific marketing plans. Isabella manages all aspects of the leasing process, and oversees areas of local advertising, public relations, special events, and the development and design of marketing materials.

Isabella holds a B.A. in International Development and Political Science from Colorado State University. She has held previous positions working for multiple international asset management companies based in Boston and Chicago. While attending Colorado State University, Isabella was part of the development team for Downtown Superior, and served as President of Metropolitan Districts No. 1, 2, and 3 in the town of Superior, Colorado.