thank you

I AM OVERWHELMED WITH APPRECIATION FOR YOUR SUPPORT AND PRAYERS AS I REFLECT ON THE INCREDIBLE DIFFERENCE YOU HAVE MADE IN MY MINISTRY, HERE IN MEXICO.

SAMARITAN'S PURSE

Many of you are familiar with the Samaritan's Purse ministry, and some of you even participated in this through your local church! Your efforts mean the world to us, thank you! We're looking forward to celebrating with around 120 graduates who've tackled a 12-week discipleship program! This includes young ones I've mentored, participants from Gina's weekly club, and members of a group led by Gris. Plenty of proud moms will be there too, and we'll seize the chance to spread the hope of Salvation. Please send a little extra love and prayer our way as we share the Gospel.

COUNSELING:

I'd like to ask for a boost in prayers for my counseling sessions. Teaching counseling courses when given the opportunity is something I love, but counseling one-on-one digs deep, often unveiling intense emotions for people, which means my schedule stays booked with one-on-one sessions. It's fulfilling work, but also exhausting, so I'm hoping for some prayers to keep me energized and wise in juggling everything.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL:

With summer just around the corner, so is Vacation Bible School, and my head's spinning with fresh ideas and direction for the 2024 theme! I'm even considering reviving the superhero theme – The kids love it, and it never gets old!

What's new in the Hershey household?

Here's a fun little update: Midnight, my faithful dog, just turned 17! It's incredible – he's been with me through half of my adventures as a missionary! He might not have much time left, but boy, has he seen the world, from countless places in Mexico to the U.S.! And guess what? He's got a new buddy named Rascal, another future adventurer, no doubt.
