Many of you who keep up with my ministry know I have devoted more time to counseling since going through cancer. Just recently, I was able to speak at 2 mini seminars on the topic, "Why we can't love".

Two ladies were really captivated and took the lesson to heart. Watching the two of them truly find freedom from their pain, and witnessing a transformation of a new life and testimony has been nothing short of amazing! One of them made the comment, "I now truly understand how important I am to Him!"

Where has 2023 gone?!

"The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."

Jeremiah 8:20

When I read this verse, it reminds me of my hometown, Aguascalientes. We are a city located in central Mexico that has become VERY resistant to the Gospel!

From Day of the Dead, in November, through the rest of the year, locals are involved in ancestor worship, as well as other things that will lead them further away from God and their salvation. Please pray for Aguascalientes and those of us working in this dark city.

Do you remember Gris, the lady I have mentioned before? The area where she works is extremely dark with drug addiction and the worship of "Holy Death".

This Fall, to reach the community, we hosted a Ladies Christmas Breakfast with the purpose of inviting unsaved ladies to hear the Gospel.

Four Families Represented

This Thanksgiving, I did something I have never done before, I hosted Thanksgiving for my neighbors with all the sides and trimmings! They do not celebrate Thanksgiving here in Mexico, so it was a new experience for them!

My desire, is that through my life and testimony, they will come to know Christ as their own Savior!

For my A.R.O.S. (Amor, Respeto, Obediencia, Servicio) Kids Club, we had an end of year party to celebrate their accomplishments! Many of you took part in making this event possible from buying socks, sponsoring a child, helping with transportation fees (renting two bus, plus a van), buying toys, etc.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart! This group of kids, and their parents enjoyed their day.

Highlight: One of my former Kids Club Members sponsored 10 of the kids!

A personal thank you for YOUR part in my ministry during 2023. I am so thankful I was able to be with some of you this Fall and give a report of everything God is doing in and through me! Thank you for all your prayer, support, toys and communication with me as we work together to make Heaven crowded!

MERRY CHRISTMAS to each of you! I look forward to co-laboring with you in 2024!
