ABOUT

Loud, confident, and known to make himself be known, Will Finley is the life of the party - stocking the bar with energy, jesters and a magnetic charisma. A mixture of outright rebellion and respect for Southern tradition, conformity was never an interest for his life or his music.

Whether it's bar-hopping and throwing-down or kicking-back and lighting-up, Will Finley is shameless with contagious spontaneity. The Georgia native possesses a no-regrets rocker style, packaged in an irresistible Southern charmer - that behavior is prevalent in his original music and his high- energy live shows.
