FROM THE PRESIDENT'S Garage

I hope All Mobsters are in good Health! With NO Cruise In and the way things are in this New World there is not much to write about.

Kathy and I went to Sumpter for a three day swap meet. Eleven hours before the event I was informed it was cancelled. I was informed that it was being merged with Zephyrhills from Feb. 11th to the 14th. I might try to go since there is nothing happening around here at this point.

I hope to see everyone at our next meeting on Feb. 10th. Don't forget Tags and Flags!

Happy Motoring
Drive Safely
President Milo

1966 Dodge Coronet four-door Sedan Mecum

It's been reported that 10,904 426 Hemi-powered street Mopars left Dodge and Plymouth assembly plants between 1966-71. The engine was available in a litany of models and body styles over the years, including fan favorites like the Plymouth 'Cuda and Dodge Charger. Tied for the rarest are the 1970 Dodge Coronet R/T convertible and the 1966 Dodge Coronet four-door sedan. Only two of each were built and all four cars survive today.

Christine at 38 - the Famous 1958 Plymouth Fury

There was no remote control used in any of the 24 cars used in the movie Christine. When Christine became "evil", her windows were painted black, except a small area covered with window tint; the stunt driver had no side or rear vision.

During the scene when the car crashes inside a garage, hitting the office wall, Arnie goes through the windshield. The car was hooked up to cables, pulled through the wall, and a stunt man dressed as Arnie did go through the (fake) windshield. The engine sound was dubbed in later.

By the movie's wrap, only three pristine Christines remained; they went on the road to promote the movie, and were later sold to collectors. A fourth car was saved from the wrecker and purchased by Martin Sanchez.

Plymouth Valiant

My mother bought me a model kit for Christmas when I was 10. There were five Mopar models in the kit. I loved model car building but I thought this car was not so pretty. I built it anyway. Today I'm not sure how pretty the Valiant is, but it is memorable! If I had a real one I would certainly drive it proudly!

Oldest Mopar Found!

The oldest MOPAR in history has turned up. It is a two seater Burnt Tan Plymouth Pterodactyl convertible with a lively (for its time) two foot pounds of torque. The car is in incredible shape considering its age.

The owner, Mr. "F", declined comment on the car as he had to get back to his job at the Slate Rock and Gravel Company.

The MOB Sends Blessings to the Salvation Army

Ray and Rachel Moyer are receiving a check from the MOB for $500 to donate to the Salvation Army. They are so thankful and send us hugs and gratefulness and God's blessings.

Clowning Around

My departed uncle was a circus clown. When he died, all of his circus clown friends arrived in one car.

They gave him a 50 honk salute!

Slow Motion

A man answered a knock on his front door but found no one there. After a minute, a louder knock was heard. The man looked down only to find a snail at his door. Irritated at the sight of it, he kicked it the off the porch.

A year or so later a knock was heard on the door. When the man answered, the snail was there again. The snail yelled saying "Why did you do that?"

Which Way?

I knew these Siamese twins; they moved to England so the other one could drive. Steven Wright

Horsing Around

You might be a redneck if you think a quarter horse is that ride in front of K Mart. Jeff Foxworthy

Sleepers

The first couple to be shown in bed together on prime time TV was Fred and Wilma Flintstone.

(I thought it was Rob and Laura Petrie!)
