Our event t-shirts have now been ordered. If you have missed the deadline, you may wish to visit the t-shirt sales table at the Super Swap. To assure that you get the size and color you wish, visit EARLY! For those who have ordered their t-shirt/s and have not yet paid for them, you may do so at the November meeting. ### Salvation Army – submitted by Rachael Moyer

I am asking for canned goods for Salvation Army families. You can bring them to me at the monthly MOB meeting or you can bring to my house. Thanks God bless.

I will also be bringing an Angel tree to the meeting. It will have the names of children and seniors. You can take one or more names. It will have the age and a few things they would like for Christmas. I will explain more at meeting. Thanks God bless. Rachael

Prez Sez: By Robert Anderson

FALL is my favorite time of year. Sitting outside early in the morning. Attending grandchildren soccer games. Camping, and other travels are always a favorite pastime for Penny and I.

We will not be able to attend the November club meeting, as we will be travelling to the Ocala part of the state for about 10 days. Penny is anxious to visit with swap meet vendors with the intent of signing up vendors for MOPAR Super Swap XXIII. We will begin with the Garlits show at the Museum of Drag Racing on 05 Nov, then travel to Webster for the 06 Nov Swap Meet there. Then back to The Horse Park in Belleview to attend the FMA MOPAR show on 12 Nov. We are hoping that we will be able to attract lots of vendors to the Super Swap.

We are on track for a January vote for new Club Officers. I have nominees for President, Vice President, and Treasurer. The club will continue to accept more nominees up to the time of the vote. The new officers will assume their offices at the end of the Super Swap on 25 February 2023.

There will not be a traditional Club Meeting at MeMaw's Restaurant in December. We have a Christmas party planned for 11 December, 2022 from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM at Slices Pizza. At the beginning of the party, I will chair a very short business meeting, then we can relax and enjoy the afternoon with Christmas party activities and excellent Italian cuisine.

I hope to see everyone at the Christmas Party.

Dare To Be Different: Super Freak Superbird Pickup. Submitted by Penny Anderson

Cory Simic:
Preserving Mopar A100 Pickup History

This 1966 Dodge A100 pickup with a Superbird wing was a local Indiana hot-rodding icon before being mothballed. Now it's uncovered after nearly half a century.

Fortunately, the history of this 1966 A100 pickup is well-documented, and its storyline provides remarkable insight into the lifecycle of classic trucks and how precious few of them have transformed from utilitarian workhorses early in life into show-stopping centerpieces—and, in this case, all the fun steps in between. According to Cory, it was originally minted in light blue with a 273ci LA-series small-block. (Dodge was the only truck manufacturer that ever built an FC pickup with a V-8.) The first owner of this 1966 A100 pickup was Chrysler itself, and it was initially used as a yard truck for about 10 years at Dodge's Warren, Michigan, truck plant where it was built.

The Dodge A100 pickup truck was built from 1964 to 1970 and shared its 90-inch wheelbase with the Dodge A100 van. It was virtually guaranteed to go down in hot-rodding history as utterly forgettable until a racer named Bill "Maverick" Golden immortalized the Dodge A100 pickup as the Little Red Wagon, first in NHRA Factory Experimental, then as a wheel-standing exhibition match racer. As a result, you couldn't be a kid in the 1960s and 1970s without being familiar with the A100's freakish proportions and outrageous stance!
