MOB Super Swap XXII

It's time once again to start preparing for our annual swap meet. Mopars of Brevard Super Swap XXII will be held Friday, February 25, 2022 (Swap Meet ONLY) and Saturday, February 26, 2022 (Swap Meet & Car Show). February 24 (Thursday) will be the early set-up date. Location - Wickham Park Equestrian Center within Wickham Park, Melbourne.

Introducing NEW THIS YEAR (2022) is an ALL MAKE Swap Meet. This gives the owners of various makes and models of other vehicles (other than Mopar) a chance to shop for parts they may need to repair, replace or need in restoring their vehicle. The All Make car corral will still be ongoing as other segments of the swap.

The New 2022 Swap Meet flyer is on the MOB website.

As always, the Swap will ONLY be as successful as the number of club members that participate. So PLEASE volunteer to help and show your support in our annual event; Mopar Super Swap XXII.

Candy Donations for Riverdale School for Mentally Challenged Children

The MOB's Rachael Moyer is calling for candy donations for the Riverdale School for Challenged Children.

I am asking again as we have done for years, please donate candy or money so I can buy candy, for Riverdale School for mentally challenged children for Halloween. Bring to October meeting. I will not be at the meeting so Penny will hold everything for me. I will be back by in time to bag all candy. We will bring it to school on October 29.

If anyone wants to come you are welcome. We don't give to students, just bring to school. Any questions, call me.

Thanks, Rachael

THE SOUND OF SUCCESS

Two 16-year-olds calling themselves Tom and Jerry recorded a single in 1957, "Hey, Schoolgirl," an Everly Brothers-influenced ditty. The Queens, New York, buddies enjoyed transitory stardom from the minor hit, which made it to the middle of the Billboard charts. For the next several years, the musicians tried to duplicate that first effort, without success.

Then in early 1964, the pair reappeared with a new sound and using their real names, Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel. As Columbia Records artists, Simon & Garfunkel recorded their debut album Wednesday Morning, 3 A.M., an acoustic work of Simon originals, folk songs and traditional tunes. Released that October, the LP sold a paltry 2,000 copies, a victim of that year's Beatlemania. Simon and Garfunkel went their separate ways—for a while.

One of the album's tracks was "The Sounds of Silence."—later "The Sound of Silence"—a tune Simon had composed in 1963 while still living with his parents. "I used to go off in the bathroom, because the bathroom had tiles, so it was a slight echo chamber," he said. "I'd play in the dark—Hello darkness my old friend/I've come to talk with you again."

A powerful social statement, the song warned against alienation and indifference toward others. And as antiwar sentiment grew, many heard the lyrics as a call to unity.

Without telling the musicians, Columbia Records producer Tom Wilson added drums and electric guitars to the song, creating a haunting folk-rock single with Top 40 appeal. Released in October 1965, the 45 rocketed to No. 1 in the months following, heralding a coming stardom that the friends had only dreamed about.

Iconic American Compact Cars

The Chevy Vega

It was "Car of the Year". Many of them had serious rust issues especially in northern climates.

The AMC Gremlin was an interesting new car.

Some hated, it some loved it.

Yes, this is really a Gremlin!

The Ford Pinto is accused of exploding in rear collisions.

Unfortunately it is true in some circumstances that the Pinto had problems where its gas tank can be pushed into the too-small rear crush space during rear end collisions, thus igniting a gasoline fire.

The Chevy Corvair was falsely accused by Ralph Nader in his book for the rear swing axle causing the car to flip over in tight fast turns.

Alas, this is not completely false. The earliest Corvairs had excessive roll, which was modified in later editions. The aftermarket offered a variety of handling fixes for the Corvair, including anti-roll bars, decambering kits, and camber compensators. Chevrolet followed suit in the fall of 1961, introducing an optional heavy-duty suspension package, RPO 696. The Vega project ending in 1965 is a beautiful car. Many enthusiasts restore the Vega and introduce fantastic upgrades.
