

SUPPORTING AREA FAMILIES EVERYDAY NEWSLETTER

DECEMBER 2025

A Year of Growth and Gratitude

2025 has been a year of milestones, impact, and heart. Thanks to the unwavering support of our community, SAFE has continued to grow, providing families with stability, compassion, and the tools to heal and thrive.

“When families are supported, children are safer,
and our communities are stronger.”

Major Highlights

$100,000 Grant from AllOne Foundation & Charities

This transformational grant made it possible for SAFE to purchase a permanent home, securing a lasting space for our programs and the families we serve.

Thank you, AMVETS, for helping us move into our new home!!

Thank you to Williams Co. for painting our high-traffic rooms.

ALLONE
FOUNDATION & CHARITIES

We were honored to receive the Pay It Forward Award from the Central Bradford County Chamber of Commerce, recognizing SAFE's commitment to empowering families and strengthening community well-being.

Leadership & Advocacy

SAFE proudly hosted Lieutenant Governor Austin Davis, who visited our center and delivered an inspiring speech on violence prevention. His message reinforced the importance of trauma-informed care and community partnerships in breaking cycles of harm.

Community Impact

SAFE is actively involved in community collaboration, with board representation on Trehab and participation in the Susquehanna County Criminal Justice Advisory Board (CJAB), the Sexual and Domestic Violence Coalition, the Reentry Coalition, the Early Childhood Coalition, and the Community Partnership for Advocacy and Awareness.

Milestone

This year marked a milestone as we welcomed our very first intern, expanding our team's reach and opening new opportunities for learning and mentorship.

Community Connection & Events

Candyland Mini Golf Event

Families enjoyed a day of laughter and fun at our Candyland-themed mini golf fundraiser, blending joy with purpose. We couldn't have done this without our partners. Thank you for helping make it a success!

Backpack Giveaway

In August, SAFE hosted a community event distributing 200 backpacks filled with school supplies to local children, helping them start the school year with confidence.
