

Cowgirls & Canadian Cowboy Partner Up!

The Cowgirl Cattle Company and Canada's greatest Western magazine, Canadian Cowboy Country, are partnering up to produce the first "Cowgirls' Almanac."

U "Cowgirls" includes all ranch women and those whose heart is in this lifestyle. You are invited to be a part of this historic Almanac. This book will recognize past and present cowgirls for their contributions to the ranching and rodeo industries in Western Canada over the last century and beyond.

U The 6" x 9" coil-bound Almanac will include sayings, sage advice, ranch family histories and their brands, remedies, photos, and old-time recipes.

U In addition, businesses, individuals, and ranches can show support by purchasing advertising! (Dimensions are width x height)
