

4
Systems

We fit players by skill level, using four distinct systems with player heights ranging from 36"-66". From beginner to elite skills, we focus on the young golfer.

11
Sizes

Our fitting philosophy is based on adult club proportions. On average, driver lengths for PGA professionals are 2/3 their height. For each size (36-66), we match that ratio with our driver lengths and engineer each club proportionally. As players grow taller, they will be properly fit, and as a result, will develop a proper release with rapid hand speed.

54 Grips

As hands grow, grips must increase with size and weight.
