Neighborhood Notes

Andover Glen Website Updates
Duane, our communications guru, is working on getting our website updated. We are hoping this can continue to be a resource for events, information, and contacts for our community.

Community Garden
Have a green thumb? The board needs to know who is interested in a garden plot this season.

Cost is $10/plot which covers water for the whole season.

Neighborhood Watch
Things have picked up a bit over the last few weeks in Andover Glen. We had a few instances/encounters with a person that was opening mailboxes, loitering in the street, and becoming unruly with both their verbal and non-verbal actions. Multiple neighbors called 311 to report this person

If you do want to have a plot, it must be maintained to avoid overgrowth/weeds.

Please reach out to Lynn Walton directly with your interest at lwalton80015@comcast.net or (303) 883-5887 by Friday, April 15th.

Water-wise Landscape Rebate
Want to save water and money? Aurora Water incentivizes residents to consider Xeriscape. Details found at: <https://www.auroragov.org/residents/water/rebates/water-wise-landscape-rebate>

A few AG residents have taken advantage of this and highly recommend it!

Andover Glen Social Event Survey Results

Thank you to all who took the time to share your input regarding upcoming social events. The board has reviewed all of the results and are now determining an action plan to get our next community event on the books!

A highlight is that we had 32 Responses and a lot of interest in participating in a “live” event. Spoiler alert, a lot of you were a big fan of a Summer Picnic. More details to come in the near future regarding our next social event!

Final Thoughts

Thank you to those who have reached out with ideas for the newsletter. We consider all ideas and determine how to potentially incorporate them in the future!

Please reach out via the online form as that is the quickest and most streamlined approach to communicate with the board if you have ideas or questions. Our next board meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 20th.

Have a wonderful start to your Spring!
