Scripture Insights

One of the most difficult tasks of community life is correcting those who go astray. Although correcting others can be dangerous, this is what God commands Ezekiel to do. The Lord appoints Ezekiel as the watchman for the house of Israel. He is to tell the Israelites all that he hears from the Lord. If Ezekiel does not warn the wicked to repent, he himself will be responsible for their death and guilt. Only by acting as the watchman of Israel, by warning his compatriots of all that the Lord says, will Ezekiel be saved.

The responsorial psalm 95 is the first psalm the Church sings every day in the Liturgy of the Hours. In this psalm, Christ summons us today to listen to the voice of the Lord, and not to harden our

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 111 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material. OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

as Israel did during the time of her sojourn in the wilderness. For even though the Father has spoken to us through His Son, Jesus Christ, we sometimes do the same.

Today's Gospel comes from what is often called "Jesus' discourse on church life" (Matthew 18). In this discourse, Jesus teaches His disciples how to correct one another. All the members of His new community, the church, have a responsibility for one another. As Ezekiel was the watchman of the house of Israel, calling his compatriots to repentance, so the members of Jesus' new community must act as people who care for and correct each other.

When the members of the Church care for and correct each other, they fulfill their obligation to love one another in the way that St. Paul describes in today's reading from Romans. For while all of the commandments are important, all of them are summed up in the phrase: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

- How do you read the first reading and the psalm together?
- What are the steps for correcting others outlined by Jesus? How are they practicable today?
- What is your experience of being corrected by others? What did you learn from that experience about yourself?

Practice of Charity

Today's readings challenge us to act compassionately and justly. In the letter to the Romans, Paul invites us to recall what we know as the Golden Rule, emphasizing that "love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law." In the Gospel, Jesus goes on to itemize how to make peace with and act justly toward those who wrong us. It seems to go against our human instinct to be patient in compassion and seeking justice, but that is the challenge of the Christian life.

- Consider someone who you feel wronged you. Reflect on whether or how you addressed the issue. What would you do differently in light of today's readings?
- Conversely, consider a time when you wronged someone else. How could you have been more loving and just?
- Moving beyond the interpersonal encounter, where in your community can you be more loving and just?

Questions

- Ezekiel is given harsh orders: If he does not warn Israel of the ways in which they are straying from God, he will be held accountable. What is your response to this? Is it fair that Ezekiel is responsible for the sins of others if he doesn't speak? Why or why not?
- Paul affirms that love is the fulfillment of the law. The idea of loving one's neighbor as oneself appears in Leviticus; it is not a new notion. However, Jesus expands the idea of neighbor. Who is "neighbor" in Paul's time? Who is "neighbor" for you?
- Jesus exhorts the community to honest and healing conversation. This can be accomplished because their relationships are grounded in love for one another. Have you seen honest feedback given in your faith community? Do people (including ourselves) nurse grudges or resentments? Is there any place in your life where this process could be applied?

Family Activities

- Being responsible for others is a key theme this Sunday. Ezekiel is charged with speaking the truth to Israel in the period of their captivity in Babylon. By speaking for God, he may not save others, but God says he will save himself. Are we to be prophetic in calling attention to wrongdoing? How might that be done? Would God hold us to the same standard? Why or why not? Discuss with a friend or write in your journal.
- As a spiritual practice this week, when someone jars you or their opinions offend, recite the words "my neighbor" silently to yourself.
- What do you make of the final paragraph of the Gospel? Why is agreement between two people in prayer the ideal? Have you ever had a sense of the presence of Jesus when you are with only a few people in His name? What was that experience like? Find a time this week to pray with two or three gathered in His name.

You are all invited to join in prayer on Wednesdays during the entire Church Year when we celebrate the Most Holy Rosary in the Cathedral at 6:00 PM.

REMEMBER THOSE WHO SERVE

The Wonder of Being Human

Your body is magnificently yours alone, but it is also true that the people you love receive from your body in important ways. Your flesh and blood actually make life more comforting and less lonely for others. The wonder of being human is the endless domino effect of how our presence touches the hearts of others—often in ways we will never know. When you hug a friend, make eye contact with a stranger, put a child on your lap, or caress a lover, you are opening yourself to allow God to communicate to another person through your body. We don't usually think of it that way, but if God is love, then that's exactly what is taking place. When your body communicates love to the world, it is acting as a vessel of God's Spirit.

GENERAL SYNOD OF OUR

PNCC

September 28-30, 2026

Almighty God, grant to all delegates of the Synod a humble spirit.
As they seek Your wisdom, lead and guide them in their deliberations.
May they be aligned with Your desires and plans for Your Holy Church.

Give them vision, courage, and hope for the future
as they follow where You lead.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord,
Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.
