Scripture Insights

God's ways are always surprising. For example, when Israel was exiled in Babylon, bereft of all hope, God designated the Persian king, Cyrus (559—529 BC) as his anointed one to release and return Israel's exiles to their homeland. The choice of Cyrus to be God's "anointed one"—a term usually reserved for Israel's king—was astounding and taught Israel that the Lord alone is God; there is no other.

Psalms 96 celebrates the kingship of God. Like other psalms of this genre (Psalms 47, 93, 96—99), it proclaims that the Lord is king of history and creation, the very theme of Jesus' proclamation of the kingdom of God.

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 111 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material. OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

This psalm is a fitting response to today's first reading, which concludes with the Lord God saying: "I am the LORD, there is no other."

Is it lawful to pay taxes to the Roman emperor? No matter how Jesus responds, it seems that he will be accused of something. But instead of answering their question, he tells them to give to the emperor what belongs to him and to give to God what belongs to God. Jesus' statement, however, leaves us with a question. If God is sovereign as today's readings from Isaiah and Psalm 96 proclaim, then what belongs to Caesar and what belongs to God?

Today's second reading is the beginning of St. Paul's first letter to the Thessalonians, an epistle that deals with the return of Christ at the end of the ages. It too highlights the centrality of God, The Church at Thessalonica is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. St. Paul gives thanks to God as he recalls the Thessalonians who were loved and chosen by God.

- Why does Psalm 96 call us to sing a "new song?"
- What belongs to civil authority and what belongs to God?

- What is your experience of being loved and chosen by God?

Practice of Faith

Today's readings serve to remind us of the truth that our God is all-powerful, outranking any human system or structure. This frees us from the temptations and constraints of power and control. Specifically, in Gospel, Jesus avoids choosing sides in the loaded question about the lawfulness of paying taxes in the Roman realm. Jesus flips the script to focus on concerning oneself with repaying God for all the good poured out. He places power back in the seat of the Lord rather than in the seat of human government. The question then sits before us : How can we reimagine our human concerns through a divine perspective?

- Consider creation, the social issues that matter most to you. In prayer, invite God to guide you on path to addressing them as God desires.
- Be intentional about consuming news from different media outlets and podcasts. Ask the Holy Spirit to help discern how the same story is being covered by different media outlets or podcasts; orient your consumption and analysis and discernment.
- Participate in local, state and national elections; before voting, research the candidates' stances for how they align with your faith identity.

Questions

- Cyrus was king of the Medes and Persians, and later his rule included Syria, Babylon, and Egypt. Through Cyrus, the Jewish exiles are freed to return and rebuild the temple in Jerusalem. For God to call a pagan his anointed is a unique and compelling move, signaling to the Jews that all of creation is under God's watch and control. What does this universalism drive home?
- In the Gospel, the Pharisees try to trap Jesus. If He says, "Pay your taxes," then He is complicit with the domination of Rome and will alienate many Jews. If he says, "Don't pay your taxes," he will be seen as subversive. He uses the image on the coin to make his point. What is easier for you, to give to Caesar or to give to God? Is it possible that Jesus is actually giving them a trick answer—is there anything that Jesus would claim was actually Caesar's, if all the world was in fact God's?

- The Pharisees probably could imagine only two answers that might be possible to the question they pose. In what way is Jesus actually proposing a third way? Although the rules are Caesar's, must one respond to them in Caesar's way? Or could one respond in God's way?

Family Activities

- In the Bible we sometimes see that people outside of Judaism (such as King Cyrus in the first reading from the Old Testament) or Christianity (such as Caesar in the Gospel) sometimes play a role in salvation history. Find other examples in Scripture and discuss them or write about them in your journal.
- People have sometimes misread this Gospel to create a strict separation between Church and state, between religious and civil realms. What is the danger of that practice? How would Jesus want us to relate to both? Pope Benedict XVI observed, in a welcoming ceremony at the White House: "Historically, not only Catholics, but all believers have found here the freedom to worship God in accordance with the dictates of their conscience, while at the same time being accepted as part of a commonwealth in which each individual and group can make its voice heard."

Startled by God

One day is much like another in the search for God. But from time to time there is a sudden, unexpected revelation, or shining forth of God. You're startled that you realize God is everywhere, in everything and everyone. Call it insight, epiphany, baptism in the spirit, or any other name, it is the same experience: The God within you is revealed fleetingly, and all the rest of your days are changed permanently. Something happens that you did not merit and that you cannot explain or communicate. But it is more real than any communicable experience, and you cannot formulate it or capture it in words; for to do so would be to have some hold on God, who cannot be captured in a phrase or formula. Nor can you, by remembering it, recapture the experience. It is gift; it is grace. The spirit blows where it will.
