Last week's Gospel about the landowner who paid everyone the same raised a question of what is fair. That question arises again this week in the first reading, as the people of Israel complain that they are being punished for the sins of their ancestors (see Ezekiel 18:2). In response Ezekiel assures them that just as those who are virtuous will be punished for committing iniquity, so the wicked who turn from sin will preserve their lives. God's ways are always fair!

In grateful for God's saving justice as described by Ezekiel, we sing Psalm 25: "Remember your mercies, O Lord." As we pray this psalm, we ask the Lord to make his ways known to us, to teach us his paths, and to guide

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 111 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material. OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

TODAY we ask our parish family to pray for the work of:

Father Senior Bogumil Czaja,
his family and the faithful of
Saints Peter and Paul Parish
South Milwaukee, Wisconsin
and

Father Justin Daviault,
his family and the faithful of
Holy Trinity Parish
Plantville, Connecticut.

We ask God to bless them in their parochial life and the work they do in their local community. We ask you to pray each day that God would bless and increase their work of evangelism and Christian sharing.

Holy Synod of PNCC September 28-30

Let us pray for the Holy Synod that the delegates may listen deeply to one another, and most especially, to the Holy Spirit. Lord, teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

us in the truth so that we will not stray from virtue. The psalm celebrates the compassion, love, and kindness of the Lord.

Both of these readings prepare us to hear the parable of the two sons that Jesus tells in the Gospel. One son refuses to do what his father asks but then changes his mind, The other son says he will do what his father asks but he does not. The sons are then judged according to what they do, not according to what they say. Within the Gospel of Matthew, the first son represents the tax collectors and sinners who have repented at Jesus' preaching. The second son represents the religious leaders who have refused Jesus' message.

In today's reading from the letter to the Philippians, we hear •the familiar "Christ hymn" that celebrates the obedience of Jesus, the Son of God, who did not insist on the prerogatives of his divine status but humbled himself to the point of dying like a slave on the cross. Because of the Son's perfect obedience, God the Father exalts the Son and gives him God's own name, "Lord," so all creation must confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

- How does the first reading prepare you to hear the Gospel?
- How does the example of Jesus' obedience prepare you to hear the Gospel?
- What is your experience of being obedient to the Lord?

Practice of Hope

Great hope can be found in today's readings, even if the message is not always straightforward. In the second reading, we are reminded how Jesus Christ took on our human form, suffering as humanity does in order to give us new life. Living up to that greatest gift is no easy feat—certainly nothing we can accomplish on our own. The hope that we have, then, is in the trying; we are not always going to "get it right" when it comes to a life of faith.

- Pray today for the grace of humility, as described in the second reading. How are you working to improve in this virtue?
- It is hard to keep our eyes always fixed on the hope that Jesus promises us. Consider a time when you did not believe the promises of Christ. How did you navigate that? How could you do so going forward?

Questions

- When things we don't understand happen, we sometimes feel like God is unfair. Here, the Lord asks that we look at our own ways and judge them fair or unfair. What is your reaction to this? Are you ever unfair in the manner of the Israelites?
- Paul calls upon the church at Phillipi to be "of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing." Is this injunction possible? Why or why not? How does it remain relevant for the Church today?
- The Gospel demonstrates that it is not enough simply to know the right thing; we have to also do the right thing. What do you think of Jesus' exhortation at the end of the passage? How might his listeners have reacted? How do you react?

Family Activities

- Sometimes Christians blame other people they think are sinful for God's actions, saying that God's actions are intended to punish people. This is not how Catholics understand God. God does not send natural disasters or epidemics to punish sinners. Can you think of claims such as those? Why would mature Christians reject such thinking? Write your thoughts in your journal.
- What does the Fourth Commandment reveal to you about how we are called to practice it?
- Think of a time when you changed your mind about someone or something. Discuss with a friend or write in your journal about how the change happened. Was it gradual, or all at once? Were you reluctant to admit the change to others, or were you comfortable with it? In hindsight, do you detect God's work in that change?

God Is Not Afraid of Mistakes

God is not afraid of mistakes, it seems. God knows that God can turn everything around—into good. There are no dead ends in the economy of grace. So, God allows us to play the field and eat of almost all the trees in the garden. This is scary, but Paul, as usual, offers a crescendo statement of the same: “For freedom Christ has set us free” (Galatians 5:1). Jesus lives it in his climactic forgiving breath (John 20:22), wherein he eternally frees humanity from its shame and guilt. Consider it this way: God’s main problem is how to give away God! But God has great difficulty doing this. You’d think everybody would want God, but the common response is something like this: “Lord, I am not worthy. I would rather have religion and morality, which give me the impression that I can win a cosmic contest by my own efforts.”

GENERAL SYNOD OF OUR

PNCC

September 28-30, 2026

Almighty God, grant to all delegates of the Synod a humble spirit.
As they seek Your wisdom, lead and guide them in their deliberations.
May they be aligned with Your desires and plans for Your Holy Church.

Give them vision, courage, and hope for the future
as they follow where You lead.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord,
Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.
