The parable of the vineyard is a story of God's relationship with the people of Israel. Israel is compared to a vineyard that the Lord carefully planted on a fertile hillside. When the people were firmly settled in the Promised Land, the Lord God looked for a harvest of judgment and justice from them. But instead of a harvest of judgment, they produced a harvest of bloodshed, and instead of a harvest of justice, they produced a harvest of violence.

Psalm 80 develops the imagery by recounting how the people took a vine (the people of Israel) from Egypt and planted it in the Promised Land where it flourished until foreign nations destroyed it. The psalmist asks the

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 111 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material. OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

Lord to restore the vine of Israel and promises that the people will never again withdraw their allegiance from the Lord.

The parable of the vineyard, which Jesus tells in today's Gospel, draws upon these readings. A landowner (God) planted a vineyard (Israel) where he built a tower (the city of Jerusalem). At vintage time, he sent his servants (the prophets) to obtain the produce of the vineyard. But the tenants (religious leaders) beat, killed, and stoned the servants. Finally, the landowner sent his son (Jesus). But instead of respecting the son, they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him (the crucifixion). When Jesus asks what the owner will do, the chief priests and elders correctly answer that the vineyard will be given to others. Jesus then says that the kingdom of God will be taken from them (the religious leaders) and given to a people (those who believe in the message of the kingdom) who will produce its fruit. In today's second reading, St. Paul describes the fruit for which the Lord is looking: whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure.

- Why do you think the Scriptures use the vineyard as a metaphor for God's people?
- Why did the religious leaders of Jesus' day fail to produce the fruit of the vineyard?
- What kind of fruit are we, the members of the Church, expected to produce?

Practice of Faith

The reading from Philippians might be among the hardest to put into practice in our lives: "Have no anxiety at all"! Who of us have struggled with worries and concerns that cloud our judgement and strain our hearts? Sometimes it's not easy to focus on those true, honorable, just, pure, and lovely things when so much weighs on us. St. Paul reminds us that God loves us enough to sit with us in the human experience and love us through it.

- In prayer today, do as St. Paul proposes and bring anxieties to God.
- Who has been a living witness of the "peace of God" in your life? Pray especially for them, and perhaps reach out and tell them of the impact they've had on you.
- Consider the litany of things to think about in the letter to the Philippians. Reflect in prayer on some things, experiences, or people who meet those standards.

Questions

- Isaiah starts by lulling us with a vivid, beautiful depiction of the vineyard of his friend. Suddenly, the tone shifts, and we encounter the wrath of the vineyard owner toward Judah and Israel, the southern and northern kingdoms. In what ways is this parable about infidelity?
- Paul is in prison, and yet he writes one of the most uplifting descriptions of the call of our faith that we have. What do you think of the image of peace as a "guard"? What does this imply for Paul? For the people of Philippi? For us in our demanding and hectic age?
- Here we see Jesus evoke Isaiah as he begins the parable. Then he expands it. To what lengths will the owner go? What meanings can you glean from this rich series of images? To what length must we go for God's kingdom?

Family Activities

- In the Old Testament, the "vine" often symbolizes Israel. Find out where and how this image is used.
- The Church is often called the "vineyard of the Lord." What kind of grapes do you think God is finding right now? What kind of grapes would he find in the vineyard of your life?

Let There Be Light

Jesus told us that we're the light of the world, and do we ever take him seriously when we're celebrating his birth! We string lights inside and outside, wrapped around pillars and fences, trailing from rooftops. Now we have laser light shows that play on the front of the house. We string lights in the house around doorways and up and down stairs. The tree might have big lights, little lights, LED lights, bubble lights, and a lighted star at the very top. And no matter how old we get, there's still a little bit of magic when we switch them on. Our love of light may go all the way back to an ancestral memory, at least in the northern hemisphere, of fearing the darkness and the cold of winter. The twinkling holiday lights give us not so much utilitarian light as a sparkle and dazzle that imitates the stars on a crisp cold night. So it's not surprising that spiritual teachers through the millennia, beginning even before Jesus, have used light as a metaphor for holiness, for joy, for peace.

As researchers study the effect of various kinds of light on the parts of our brain that control waking and sleeping as well as mood disorders, we gain knowledge and insight. People in climates that have long stretches of dark, gray days have learned to use light therapy to keep depression and seasonal affective disorder at bay. But mostly, we're putting a name to what we already know instinctively: Light makes us happy.
