Scripture Insights

The actual creation of Adam and Eve and the placing of them in the Garden of Eden was not an end in itself but only a necessary step at the beginning of a process that continues right down to today.

God is creating a community. From the very beginning, God implies the expansion of His own community. He says, "Let Us," indicating a community already exists. Man was made, physically, in God's image, and he begins with characteristics of shape and form in common with his Maker, but also character, so that he fits into the community that the Maker is expanding.

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 110 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material. OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

When the Son of God came, He came with a message from His Father. Jesus gave as the title to the message that He brought, "the good news of the Kingdom of God" (Mark 1:14-15). This is the Boss Himself, and this is the title He Himself gave. It was the good news of the Kingdom of God.

Is there any doubt in our minds that God is forming a community? Is there any doubt that Jesus Christ will rule this community, first, and that afterward, He will turn everything over to the Father? (I Corinthians 15:28)? There is nothing ambiguous here. Is God forming a community?

The important thing for us is what ramifications the good news of the Kingdom of God has on the way we live our lives. In the course of the unfolding of Christ's ministry, and the apostles' afterward, we find some interesting things that have a direct impact on the way we live our lives.

First, Christ was the Son of God. Does not a son indicate a family relationship? "Son" is used in the Bible in at least two different ways. One means "a direct descendant of." The other is used in the sense of "characteristics of, but not necessarily direct descendant of." The Bible says plainly that Jesus was the Son of God, a direct relationship. Since He was of the same Family, there is a family relationship. He was not only a literal Son born of Mary of the Holy Spirit, but He also showed the characteristics of God. He was God.

Is Christ indicating a family relationship with us in Mark 3:34-35? We have already seen that the community that He is creating is a kingdom. This kingdom is also a Family. Everybody is related, all being sons of the Creator. Everybody has the same characteristics. Do not the descendants of parents look like their parents? Sure they do.

Everything fits together beautifully, and logically. God is reproducing Himself. Consider Romans 8:14-15. Is that a family? Thus, if we have the Spirit of God, we are part of a family. We are Jesus' brothers. We are Jesus' sisters. We are Jesus' mothers (see Matthew 12:50). We have the same Father as He did.

- Each reading speaks to a particular aspect of the Christian family. What picture does each reading present? How are they to be understood as a whole?
- When have you felt part of the Christian family? When have you not felt a part?
- How well does your family reflect the Christian family? How well does your church reflect the Christian family?

Practice of Hope

The Christian home is central to Faith. It is here that children learn to be good Christians and it is here that we forge our lives in the Spirit. Our homes need to be safe, secure, happy places and we must strive to make them homes filled with faith, praise, respect, and love.

Often, the cost of living today creates a situation in which both parents must work outside the home. For that reason, it is so important that the all too short time spent at home to be the best time possible. A good Christian home life is built upon this kind of quality time.

advice, tools, and information to make your home a truly happy and warm place. A variety of articles, devotionals, scriptures, ideas household tips, and other interesting information will guide you on the path to a fuller Christian life.

- What keeps your family focused on the Christian lifestyle?
- Today's Entrance Hymn (Galatians 6:10) says: So then, while we have the opportunity, let us do good to all, but especially to those who belong to the family of the faith. How do you express this directive in your life?
- Today's Gradual verse reminds us to "honor [our] father[s] and mother[s]." What are some of the ways you honor your parents in their senior years? How do you teach your children to honor you?

Focus on What's Essential

Amid all the disaster and distress that wheels around and swirls within us in chaotic times, there are also always marvels to behold. Let neither fear nor preoccupation keep you from being touched by wonderfully wounded life. May you find a way in every day, to share your great-fullness for all that touches your eyes. May you refuse to be crushed but rather, look lovingly upon all with tear-washed eyes, trained on woundedness, straining for wonder. As you savor the sweet brevity of your days, may passion puncture you, letting out joy, till warmly you are welcomed; a sight for sore eyes.

— from the the book Wandering and Welcome: Mediations for Finding Peace
by Joseph Grant

ALL SAINTS (Nov. 1st) & ALL SOULS (Nov. 3rd) REMEMBRANCES

We remind all that All Saints Day (Saturday, November 1st) and All Souls Day (translated to Monday, November 2nd) are rapidly approaching.

All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation, as are all Sundays. Attending the regularly scheduled 9:00 AM Mass that day will allow you to fulfill your obligation.

On the Observance of All Souls Day, Holy Mass will also be offered at 9:00 AM.

The reading of remembrances will conclude the Evening Prayer on Friday and the Saturday Morning Mass.

You will find remembrance envelopes in the Church foyer and S.O.C.L. Entranceway. It has long been the tradition of the Church to read all names listed during All Souls Day services. Our parish also offers an individual Mass intention during the year for each remembrance. I would encourage all of our faithful to continue this tradition by using the envelopes provided and writing the names of their loved ones thereon. The offering itself is optional but appreciated.

This Month's bulletins are being sponsored by:

JACQUELINE B. SZOPA

OCTOBER 2025 - Join us in prayer every Wednesday at noon:

Lord, bless us with the wisdom to praise
You in Spirit and in truth, so that by following Your holy will we may gain
eternal salvation.

May we be instruments of Your divine plan that righteousness may triumph over evil.

May Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

(PNCC Book of Devotions and Prayers)

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name;

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our trespasses

as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

Amen.

Eastern Diocese Mission and Evangelism Commission

Special rosaries are available to all at no cost

We invite all to pray the Holy Rosary, asking God's blessings for our Polish National Catholic Church. Made by loving parishioners of All Saints PNC Parish in Sterling Heights, Michigan, the rosaries feature five different color bead sets for the five dioceses of the Polish National Catholic Church.

In praying the mysteries, we ask those accepting the rosaries to pray regularly for God's blessings upon each diocese of our Church. For those who have never prayed the rosary, they have also prepared a book explaining this traditional form of prayer. See Bishop Paul for a rosary today.
