Scripture Insights

Today's readings can be better understood when placed within their historical context. The first reading from the Second Book of Maccabees recounts the circumstances of Judaism in the latter part of the second century before Christ. It was during this time that belief in the resurrection from the dead was emerging within parts of Judaism. Not all Jews believed in resurrection. Among those that believed in the resurrection were the Pharisees; among those that did not believe in the resurrection were the Sadducees. While there were other sects within Judaism, it is these two groups that are often

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 110 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material. OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

referred to in the Gospels.

Today's first reading is part of a text that recounts the story of a mother and her seven sons. Each member of this family was killed for refusing to disobey the law by eating food that was forbidden them to eat. Each bravely faced death rather than break God's command, and each believed that God would raise them to new life.

Our Gospel from Luke, written in the first century, presents a story of some Sadducees, who placed a question to Jesus regarding the resurrection and marriage.

While the Sadducees did not believe in the resurrection, they confronted Jesus with a situation that forced him to respond. Another teaching of Judaism, and one held by the Sadducees, was that, when a male sibling died without offspring, it was the responsibility of the next brother to provide a child for his sibling's widow. When they confront Jesus with the question, "at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be?" (20:33), Jesus is compelled to respond to the Sadducees in a manner to which they were accustomed. He refers to another portion of Scripture to emphasize the point that God is the God of the living, not of the dead.

- Reflect on when you were faced with a decision that would go against your beliefs. How did you confront this difficulty?
- Reread today's responsorial psalm. Which lines in this psalm speak to your heart?
- How do you envision the resurrection?

Practice of Hope

At the time of Jesus, not all Jews believed in an afterlife. The seven brothers in the first reading believed in the resurrection of the just, whereas others, such as the Sadducees, did not. Jesus' resurrection ensures that there is new life to come.

- What stories, paintings, and other art strengthen your hope in the life to come? Choose an image of the risen Jesus. Pray with this image, asking God to complete his glorification of all creation.
- Are you scared of death? Share your fears with the Lord. What should you do to prepare for death, not only spiritually, but in other aspects of your life?
- During November we especially remember those who have died. Pray today's responsorial psalm on behalf of those who have died, especially those who died young or who died a violent death.

Questions

- How does the story in the first reading strike you? Is it too gruesome for your sensibilities? Is it edifying? What stories of modern-day martyrs do you find inspiring?
- From the second reading, what can you tell about Paul's belief in the power of prayer? Who do we ask for prayers? How do we believe it will help us?
- What parts of today's responsorial psalm echo the way Jesus describes the afterlife?

Family Activities

- On November 11, the Church celebrates the Memorial of St. Martin of Tours. St. Martin took seriously Jesus' admonition to care for the poor. Go through your home and gather clothing you no longer need to give to a thrift shop.
 - In today's Gospel, some Sadducees, who deny the resurrection of the dead, try to trip up Jesus. Take time this week to understand the tenet that we profess in the Creed each week: "I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come."
 - Our parish has its own cemetery. The cemetery committee of the parish provides oversight with parish committee oversight. Learn more about the cemetery, talk to the committee members, visit the cemetery and consider supporting it.

Being a disciple of Jesus Christ is not an effort of once a week or once a day. It is an effort of once and for all.

Identity, Justice, and Community

We will not appreciate Jesus' loyalty to the Law and the Prophets if we do not accept his deeper understanding of freedom. I'm afraid that the cry of the French Revolution, "Liberty, equality, and fraternity," has formed us much more than the Jesus Revolution. His cry might instead be "Identity, justice, and community." Think about the difference. We also tend to think of freedom as freedom of movement and the liberty to choose between options. This is surely a good and important freedom. There is no indication that the great spiritual teachers, Jesus included, see it as essential, however. They seem to recognize that the world of preferences and possibilities does not of itself lead to wisdom, truth, or even depth of experience. In fact, in the spiritual life, the rule seems to be that less is more. There is almost no correlation between the number of options and the amount of truth or goodness that one attains.
