Scripture Insights

When John the Baptist invites his fellow Jews to be immersed in the River Jordan he is employing a strategy used by the prophets Jeremiah and Ezekiel—a prophetic symbolic action. He invites them to acknowledge their sins by reenacting their origins as a chosen people. Just as their Israelite ancestors completed their exodus out of Egypt by passing through the waters of the Red Sea, so they are invited to renew their commitment to live the life of the Torah by getting immersed in those same waters.

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 108 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material.

OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team will be reorganizing in the near future. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

SOUP FOR SENIORS

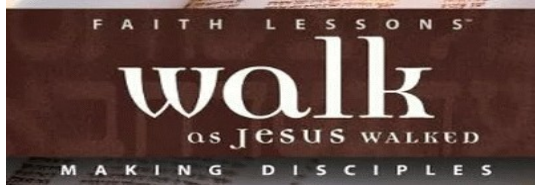

There was no Soup for Seniors last week due to the Rectory Open House. The Soup for Seniors, sponsored by the parish (Frederick Chopin) choir returns today.

What delicious treat will our seniors enjoy this Sunday?

Parishioners are praying jointly for our parish family. You are invited to join them. Prayer gatherings are held Thursdays at 11:30 AM. Time commitment is about 45 minutes a week.

The prayer time is structured and Scripture-based. No advance preparation required. You only need to show up. Contact Karen Sobiechowski for questions or if you would like to participate.

OUR PARISH ADULT BIBLE STUDY is a Zoom & face to face study in the Craft Room. The next scheduled study date will be Tuesday, January 23, 2024 at 7 PM. Studies generally last one hour to one and one half hours.

If you want to join in the study in person, simply show up. If you join in on Zoom you'll need to ask Bishop Paul for the Zoom link. Study sheets will be sent to all our HTC internet family prior to the study.

TODAY we ask our parish family to pray for:

Rev. CARLOS A. Aranda,
his family and the faithful of
Saint Mary Parish
West Allis, Wisconsin
and

Rev. Adam Czarnecki,
his family and the faithful of
Saint Valentine's Parish
Northampton, Massachusetts.

We ask God to bless them in their parochial life and the work they do in their local community. We ask you to pray each day that God would bless and increase their work of evangelism and Christian sharing.

Prayer Shines a Light

In its fullness, prayer is an encounter with God that transforms the way we see and interact with the world. It is like a bright light that reveals what we otherwise do not see: When we wear glasses or look through a window away from the light, we can believe that the glass is perfectly clean. But turn our perspective and hold it up to the light, all of a sudden we are able to see smudges, scratches, and cracks that have been there all along but completely hidden to our normal consciousness. That is the effect that an encounter with God can have on our lives. When we stop for a moment the desire to convince God to give us what we want and simply encounter God—to aim our full attention at the light itself rather than using it to see what we want—our focus becomes clear. All of a sudden, we see ourselves and the world the way God does... and for the first time know that things are not the way that they should be. Something needs to change. Often, that something is us.

Your word is a lamp to my feet
and a light for my path.
- Psalm 119:105 -

O merciful God, grant that we may hear Your words with willing hearts and apply ourselves to fulfill them. May we progress toward perfection, and, after completing our earthly pilgrimage, may we be united with You in eternity. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. (from the PNCC Liturgy for Word of God Sunday)

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name;
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Jesus chooses this time to enter His public work by joining the crowd. To acknowledge His sins? No. This is the One Who is "like us in all ways but sin." Jesus participates in the immersion ritual to be in solidarity with the rest of His people, another way of living out the mystery of the Incarnation. For people who knew their Scriptures, John's brief statement says all that is needed. To say that Jesus will baptize them with the Holy Spirit is a clear reference to several prophetic passages, especially Ezekiel 36:25—27: "I will sprinkle clean water upon you ... and from all your idols I will cleanse you. I will give you a new heart and place a new spirit within you, taking from your bodies your stony hearts and giving you natural hearts. I will put my spirit within you." Every detail of Mark's account echoes the Old Testament. The "tearing" of the sky recalls Isaiah 63:19 suggesting that this public debut of Jesus is the answer to Isaiah's prayer (addressed to God as "Father" in 63:16) that God "rend the heavens and come down" and again send His Spirit (Isaiah 63:1—14) to lead them. As with so many other details of Mark's story, the key to understanding the Father's words to His Son, "With you I am well pleased," is found in the prophets. In Isaiah 42:1-7, God uses similar words to introduce His servant, Who will "bring forth justice to the nations."

- How does Jesus's immersion introduce the rest of Mark's Gospel account?
- How does the Father's statement to His Son point to Jesus's mission?
- How does Mark's account of Jesus's (Jewish) immersion illuminate our Christian baptismal vocation?

Practice of Faith

Today Isaiah reminds us of God's gracious promise to enter into a covenant with us. In the Second Reading, John tells us that the love of the Father brings us into relationship with every one of God's beloved people. Finally, we hear of Jesus's own baptism and the tangible presence of the Father and the Spirit in that moment and in all of His life. Today we are invited to remember our own Baptism and contemplate its effects in our lives

- Talk to someone to whom you are related by Baptism (godparent or godchild or soul friend). How would you describe the special bond you share through Baptism?
