Scripture Insights

John the Baptizer's preparation for the way of Jesus involves participation in Jesus' way. Like Jesus, John the Baptizer is arrested by the authorities (1:14). Jesus' arrival in Mark is about the coming of God's reign (1:15). The time has come for all other kingdoms or empires to end. We need to trust this Good News by orienting ourselves to a different direction and renouncing all existing forms of dominion (the Greek word translated as repent means a changing or a transformation of the mind). Because Jesus' way is not the way of

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 108 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material.

OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

Make Our Guests Welcome

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU

Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team will be reorganizing in the near future. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

The Cause of Our Joy

Christian joy is not simply a superficial feeling of heightened delight or the emotion accompanying extreme pleasure. It does not necessarily depend upon one's immediate circumstances or fortune, as taught by Saint Francis's example. It does not ignore or deny the troubling reality of indifference, hopelessness, or disappointment. Christian joy lies beyond the realm of feelings and emotions. It is a fundamental disposition and stance toward life. Descriptive metaphors for it abound: It is the knowledge that having prayed and surrendered, God hears the hopes and desires of my heart and will respond in a timely, appropriate way. God is my shepherd and I must trust God's heart. Joy feeds on the fact that God stands watch over every situation in my life and guides me with rod and staff. My joy sometimes bubbles up, sometimes surges up, from the rock-bottom certainty that the finger of God is somehow present in every tragic or trivial event. Joy is the oasis residing in the confident conviction that the waters of God's loving care and concern never run dry—not even in the desert. The gratuity of grace is always unending and never expiring. Joy is rooted in the reality of a stone door rolled back from its tomb. Sowing seeds of joy amid sadness requires the two fundamentals of soul training: prayer—invoking assurance and confidence that God is looking out for us—and action—a servant's surrender and acceptance of consequences without clinging to fears, attachments, control needs, and a sense of entitlement. Both prayer and action plant a servant's feet in the footprints that lead beyond the tomb of Lazarus and the cross of Calvary.

those in power, preparing or following Jesus' way inevitably involves conflict. What we prepare for and follow is the way of the cross. John the Baptizer will be beheaded (Mark 6:14—29).

Jesus' early disciples illustrate what Paul suggests in 1 Corinthians 7:29—31. In contrast to Jonah, who took his time responding to God's call before he finally carried God's message to Nineveh in Jonah 3, they respond to Jesus' call immediately—and they not only drop their usual business but also leave their family. Work and family are structures that support or conventions that govern our lives over time. Mark and Paul tell us that the coming of God's reign requires us to renounce our ties to, and our dependence on, ways that sustain our lives over time because Jesus' way is not a way to ensure the continuation of one's life through property or progeny. It is the way of the cross.

Psalms 25 and Jonah 3 remind us of God's love and mercy. The way of the cross does not mean that God wills or wants us to suffer and die as if God were a sadist. God only calls us to live by God's reign, but the cross may become inevitable because there are those who prefer the perpetuation of the status quo to the coming of God's reign.

- What do we have to lose, or what are we afraid of losing today?
- How do we reconcile God's love and mercy with Jesus' cross?
- What causes us to procrastinate and keeps us from embracing a sense of urgency?

Practice of Faith

When Jonah warned the people of Nineveh of God's impending punishment, they promptly repented. When Jesus summoned the Galilean fishermen to participate in the proclamation of God's kingdom, they promptly joined Him. When we hear St. Paul urging the Christians in Corinth not to become preoccupied by worldly concerns, we hear that same invitation to ask ourselves if we are truly living as God intends or if we need to make changes in our lives.

- Scrutinize your life. What do you spend time on? What do you spend money on?
- When Jesus called his first disciples, they immediately left everything behind. Is there something in your life you need to walk away from completely?
- Do you know someone who might join you in making meaningful life changes? Talk with that person about how you can support each other.

Questions

- When in your life have you made a major change in direction? Where did the impetus for change come from? Did the change come easily, or with great effort?
- Who has played prophet in your life, warning or challenging you to live differently? How did you feel about the message when you first heard it?
- Could you do what Andrew, Peter, James, and John did and abandon the life you know to embrace the uncertainty offered by Jesus? Why do you think they were able to say yes to Him?

Family Activities

- Research the life of a historical figure who embraced dramatic change to pursue his or her destiny. What do you most admire about this person? What aspects of his or her story would be too hard for you to accept?
 - Speak with a neighbor, with your pastor, or your supervisor at work about something you think needs to be fixed. Compare and contrast their reactions with the response of the Ninevites.
 - Give up something you enjoy for a week, cold turkey. At the end of the week, reflect on how easy or difficult it was to suddenly let go of something important to you.
