THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

TRZECIA NIEDZIELA WIEKANOCNA

John 21 reintroduces the Gospel through an epilogue. This later time and place by the Galilean sea alerts us that the story is not ended. Indeed, the journey of believing may never end as such. We follow Peter's lead, who last spoke thrice denying Jesus while warming himself by a charcoal fire with Jesus' enemies in the high priest's court. He had sworn to lay down his life for Jesus, but his defense was prevented in the garden. The earnest leader denied all relationship with Jesus. Now, he says, "I'm going fishing." Peter was to lead others to new life in community but has returned to his old life.

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 107 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material.

OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

EVEN DURING COVID-19

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

The Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized and we are now the "Membership and Outreach" Team. Our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Jo-Ann O'Connell at 463-9848 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

MAY BIRTHDAYS

08 - Daniella Sienko 09 - Diane Bielizna 30 - Emilia DeVore
31 - Robert DeVore 31 - Erin O'Neil

Those Seniors who stayed for the Cake and Coffee reception this past Sunday were treated to soup through the Soup for Seniors Program of our HTC Frederick Chopin Choir. Last Sunday Kathy Card prepared ELEVEN pints of Gofabki Soup.

What will be the delicious fare today ?

In heaven we shall live and not be able to die, for we shall enjoy eternal glory, life that was purchased for us by our Savior's death. We shall possess it securely, without fear of losing it. Our Lord came as Savior to save us all from dying. For his death acquired for us that life in which we shall never die, the life of glory.

—St. Francis de Sales

TODAY we ask our parish family to pray for:

Father Gabriel Flores Zavala,
and the faithful of
Holy Name of Jesus Parish
Milwaukee, Wisconsin
and

Father Paul Dudek,
and the faithful of
Holy Saviour Parish
Naugatuck, Connecticut.

We ask God to bless them in their parochial life and the work they do in their local community. We ask you to pray each day that God would bless and increase their work of evangelism and Christian sharing.

Every Wednesday at noon, during the month of May, join us in offering the Lord's Prayer and this prayer of blessing:

Lord Jesus, Source of all good, let Your blessing flow upon all who are in need.
Strengthen the weak, give faith to the doubting, and increase our love for You and our desire for Your honor and glory.
Blessed and praised be the most holy and divine Sacrament now and forever. Amen.

After a dark night, morning breaks to reveal Jesus ashore, guiding even actively failing disciples. The Beloved Disciple continues to witness and give access by recognizing the Lord. Peter, in keeping with his zealous character, jumps into the sea to get to Jesus. Reaching land, he returns on Jesus' command to haul the catch ashore in the unbroken net. The abundance echoes the wine and food Jesus provided (2:1—12; 6:1—14), representing the inclusivity of the Church.

Jesus meets the disciples around a new charcoal fire and meal. Reconciling Peter's relationship with Jesus takes center stage as Jesus confronts Peter repeatedly, upsetting his equilibrium and challenging him to decision and new action. Thrice inquiring about Peter's love, Jesus brings him into a binding relationship with missional consequences. Peter's leadership is clarified pastorally as he is mandated the new shepherd of the flock of the children of God, his journey culminating in the story even as it begins anew beyond the story's boundaries as Jesus commands, "Follow Me."

- Peter was going to take up his former life of fishing. When have you been tempted to return to a previous way of living?
- Jesus ultimately meets Peter where he is, in his imperfection. How is this a powerful lesson of hope for struggling believers of all time?

- John characterizes Peter as the leader and the Beloved Disciple as the model believer. How might we discern our gifts if the best leader may not be the best disciple, and vice versa?

Practice of Charity

John's Gospel shows the Lord feeding, forgiving, and inspiring his disciples to move on. Just as God does this for us, we are to do it for others.

- Invite someone who is struggling to a meal in your home. Offer your hospitality with no expectations and appreciate their presence.
- Journal about times when you have felt forgiveness as well as times in which you have forgiven others.

Questions

- Why is the power of Jesus Christ's Name so important? Where have you heard references to the Son's Name in the liturgy?
- When have you, in the midst of a crisis, cried out to the Lord to rescue you, as the psalmist in today's responsorial psalm apparently did? How close to the psalm was your own experience?
- As often seems to happen in post-resurrection encounters with Christ, the Apostles do not immediately recognize Him. How might we be failing to recognize Christ in our daily lives? How could we become more aware of him?

Activities

- This week, conduct an informal survey among your friends, asking under what circumstances they would choose to obey God rather than humans and why. Are their responses similar to your thoughts on this subject? How have their perspectives influenced you?
- A beautiful hymn is found in today's second reading from the Book of Revelation: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain . . . forever and ever." Use this text this week as the basis for your prayer and join in the cosmic praise of the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.
- After reading this Gospel, read again the one proclaimed on Easter Sunday (John 20:1-9). Write in your journal or talk with a friend about the different ways Peter and the Beloved Disciple behave in these two readings. What does each of them have to teach us about being a disciple of Christ?

Christ Calls Us to the Here and Now

Following Christ does not mean that we have to give up our jobs, schools, love of sports and entertainment, playing video games, or our social media handles. At least, not necessarily. What it means is that we need to let go of everything that produces anxiety in us and takes up our time without any benefit to ourselves or the world; it means giving up the trivial worries that merely keep us busy, give us something to think about, offer an escape, or hide us from what really matters. Christ calls us to the here and now. He wants us to be present to people and things that actually make a difference. If we want to be his disciples, there is no time to waste living in a world that doesn't exist. The kingdom is at hand, and it's the only world we need.

— from the book Let Go: Seven Stumbling Blocks to Christian Discipleship
by Casey Cole, OFM, page 50
