FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
PIĄTA NIEDZIELA WIEKANOCNA

adapted from: At Home with the Word,
© 2021, Liturgy Training Publications, Chicago, IL

The first reading for this Fifth Sunday of Easter reminds us of the energy of a young and enthusiastic community of faith. While this passage from Acts brings to conclusion the first missionary journey of Paul and Barnabas, it also provides us with insight as to how the members of the early Church needed to support and encourage one another to remain faithful, particularly in times of hardship.

In our text from the Book of Revelation, reminiscent of the concluding chapters of Isaiah, we hear of a time to come when all will be well, when the world as we know it will be no more. The picture is

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 107 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material.

OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

EVEN DURING COVID-19

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

The Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized and we are now the "Membership and Outreach" Team. Our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Jo-Ann O'Connell at 463-9848 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

one of restoration and consolation. God will "make all things new" (21:5a).

The setting of today's Gospel passage is the Last Supper. Our lectionary reading has selected certain verses from John 13 in a manner that does not necessarily help us understand what has transpired and what will happen. In the opening verses of this chapter, Jesus washes the feet of his disciples; in the closing verses (three verses after today's reading), Peter asks Jesus where he is going and wants to know why he cannot go with him. Jesus responds by telling Peter that he will deny Jesus three times. Thus, while our reading for today most definitely refers to and emphasizes a new commandment of love, the depth of Jesus' love seems to be undercut by the removal of several verses of this pericope. Jesus commands us "to love one another" (13:35). Even when we fail to love as Jesus loves, His love will embrace us when we return.

- On a map in your Bible, find the cities where Paul and Barnabas traveled. Reflect on their passion as they spread the good news over such a vast region, approximately 1,200 miles.
- Read today's responsorial psalm reflectively. How have you experienced God's mercy and kindness? Identify one or more events when you have known the compassion of God.
- Read John 13:1—35 and reflect on the depth of Jesus' love.

Practice of Charity

Our readings invite us to imagine and strive for a world utterly transformed by God's love. When have you experienced God's love through someone else? In what concrete way have you loved others? Is there a person or group of people from whom you are deliberately withholding your love? Talk with Jesus about this situation

- List all of the countries of the world that you can think of. Pray for God's love to fill every person in every nation. Conclude your prayer with today's psalm

- Talk with someone who is mourning the death of a loved one. Pray for that person, or pray with him or her if you can. Ask God to "wipe every tear from their eyes."

Questions

- In what ways could we make a connection between the work of Paul and Barnabas in the many towns mentioned in the first reading and some of the ministries in our own parishes?
- What name do you use when you praise God? How do you relate to God as a King? (See the Responsorial Psalm.) What sort of King is God, according to the verses of Psalm 145?
- What are some of the images in today's second reading that suggest the marriage between Christ and the Church? What comfort do you find in this passage?
- Two words permeate today's Gospel: glory and love. In what ways do you give glory to God? How do you express the commandment to love one another? What individuals or groups do you find difficult to love?

Activities

- With a map of the Middle East (perhaps one is in your Bible), trace the journey Paul made in chapters 13 and 14 of Acts.
- Identify concrete ways that you and your household or community could give hope and encouragement to suffering people. Take heart in the words of today's second reading, "Behold, I make all things new . . . ." Can you share this message with those who suffer?
- Take a moment out of each day this week to enjoy the flowers, bushes, and trees that are beginning to come into leaf. Give thanks and praise to God for the beauty that is found in all living things. Let all that has breath praise the Lord!

Nothing Small about Compassion

There is nothing small about compassion. There is nothing small about making a difference in the life of one human being. But sometimes, we need an experience that rocks our world. Or, to invite us to hit the reset button. You know, back to what makes us human. To say yes to whatever connects us, as humans, as children of God, as people who need compassion and mercy for sustenance, as people who cannot walk this journey alone. And to say no to whatever divides or demeans or belittles or degrades or incites hate and exclusion. And I must speak that yes, and speak that no, not only with my voice, but with my hands and my feet. Lord hear my prayer. When the world feels small and dark and frightful, it is not surprising we choose to protect our hearts. We do not easily give them away.

This happens when we live from the notion that we carry only so much emotional capital—you know, that precious commodity which allows us to pay attention, to focus, to contribute, to care, to forgive, to set free. So, it goes without saying that conservation is called for. And it becomes our default. "There is no need to spend empathy on just anybody," we think. "We need to pick and choose." Or more bluntly, "There are those who deserve care, and those who don't." Lord, help us. We lose track of the values that sustain us. There is nothing small about compassion. It is the thread of life woven through each day. As humans—in the image of God—we touch, love, give, receive, and redeem. It's time to rethink our notion about the scarcity of compassion. This is an affirmation of what is already alive and well within each of us. We have the capacity to be places of shelter and hope and inclusion and healing.
