Scripture Insights

John the Baptist's ministry was a preparation for that of Jesus' impending one. By preaching repentance and baptizing believers, John prepared people to receive Jesus' radical proclamation and Spirit-filled ministry. Elsewhere in Scripture, the desert or wilderness is a place of testing and refining that emphasizes God's miraculous and transformative power.

In this space of testing, St. Paul highlights gifts of endurance and encouragement. Earlier in Romans, he traced a chain of growth from suffering to endurance to character to hope (Rom 5:3—5). That

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 110 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material. OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

hope is grounded in God's love, truthfulness, and promises (Rom. 5:5, 15:8). The gift of encouragement is not just for oneself but for the strengthening of others (Rom 12:6—8). Today, he reminds his readers that Scripture can equip them to bear with and lift one another up in difficult times.

The psalm and first reading each portray a righteous ruler. The psalm asks God to make justice the defining feature of the king's rule. It is not a vague concept; it takes concrete shape in policies that advance and protect the well-being of society's most vulnerable. By championing the cause of those who are poor and in need, the just ruler enacts God's judgment for the world.

In the first reading, the just ruler receives God's own spirit. The same spirit of knowledge guiding the king helps transform every facet of society and every pocket of creation. Isaiah's vision of a radically transformed future has inspired people to imagine the change that is possible for our world. Together, these readings show us the scope of that change. Jesus' coming is not just a personal matter. It touches all of creation.

- What Old Testament reading do you think offered Paul's readers encouragement and strength for endurance and why?
- Why does God value justice for the poor?
- What can you clear away to make space for the Holy Spirit's movement in your life?

Practice of Charity

John the Baptist calls you to "make straight his paths." What are concrete ways to establish Christ's kingdom of heaven here on earth?

- This week, strive to "think in harmony" with those in your home, work, and parish. Show hospitality by listening to the opinions of others. Engage in dialogue when problems arise so "that with one accord you may with one voice" arrive at solutions that glorify God.

- Spend this week praying for God's guidance to attend to those in need in your family or community. Investigate outreach programs in your neighborhood and parish. Volunteer in a community soup kitchen or shelter.
- Check on elderly neighbors who may need extra support or companionship. Is there an elderly family member you can comfort with a phone call or visit? Write an email or send a card to let them know they are loved. Invite them for a family meal so they may feel welcome "as Christ welcomed you."

Questions

- The reading from Isaiah foreshadows the arrival of Jesus. The "stump of Jesse" refers to the lineage of King David, of which Jesus will be a part. How do you see the qualities in this passage reflected in Jesus? In what ways is He a green shoot from something that has been chopped down?
- The psalmist provides us with a magnificent depiction of the fullness of justice and peace that comes with God's reign. When you pray this psalm, are you inspired or are you filled with questions about whether such a vision could ever be fulfilled?
- The depiction of John the Baptist is vivid. He is not what we might expect God's powerful messenger to look like. Are there ways in which appearances influence how open you are to receiving God's messages in your life?

Activities

- During dinner, inquire about places in our lives and world where we need to see the promises Isaiah foretells realized. Can we think of where a wolf must learn to lie with a lamb? Cows and bears that should be better neighbors? The local or national newspaper can be a great place to discover these answers, as can our own lives.
- Look at the beginning of the reading from Isaiah and reflect on the gifts of the Spirit he recounts. Can you grow this Advent season in understanding? In knowledge? What actions will you take to do this each day?

Patience and Trust

We might think of patience as trust through time. And our perception of time changes as we grow older. Remember what this time of year felt like when you were a child? It seemed as though Christmas would never get here. Children live so much in the present moment that it's hard to get them to understand the passage of time and the need to wait. As we get older, though, it seems as though time moves faster and faster. We look back on our teenage and young adult years and wonder when we found time to hang out with our friends, to play games (card, board, video—the medium changes but the pastime doesn't). We might think it's our work and family responsibilities, and that's part of it, but even people who have retired say that they find it hard to find time for all that they want to do.

Only at the very end of our lives do we again find time hanging heavy around us. If infirmity and illness keep us from doing the things we love, the days may feel endless and the nights even more so. Instead of having to slow down, we need to remind ourselves that we're in the perfect time and place for long and leisurely conversations with God.

— from the book Simple Gifts: Daily Reflections for Advent

I do not give to you as the world gives.
