John the Evangelist wrote for disciples who did not have firsthand knowledge of Jesus. Over time, those with firsthand memories of Jesus died and were succeeded in the faith by people too young to remember Jesus. But these latter disciples believed with at least as much fervor as earlier generations. In his resurrection accounts, John helped his community understand this phenomenon by showing the power of faith.

Some early disciples had visual evidence of the risen Christ. For

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL PARISH

If this is your first visit with us, please sign our guest register in the vestibule and join us for a cake and coffee fellowship that follows every Sunday Mass and on various feast days of the Church year.

Holy Trinity Cathedral Parish of the Polish National Catholic Church has been an integral part of the Manchester and Southern New Hampshire community for 110 years meeting the religious needs first for the Polish immigrant community, and later for all residents of the Granite State. We hope to continue our growth in service to God and community. This commitment manifests itself in a regular devotional and prayer life and a greater participation in both ecumenical and community activities.

At Holy Trinity Cathedral PARISH, our primary emphasis is on the PARISH family. All who belong sense this family spirit - expressed in a real love and concern for one another. Our pastor makes a point to know each family on a one-to-one basis with frequent visits to family homes and to the hospitalized. Thus the spiritual health and vitality of all parishioners and all our friends is supported by both pastor and laity.

We invite You to join our PARISH family! If you are looking for a PARISH and are considering Holy Trinity, feel free to talk with any parishioner about it. We will introduce you to our family in all its wonderful aspects - a family whose real strength lies in our personal and real relationship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We express this faith in our Church through our liturgy which is Catholic and traditional, shared between priest and laity. We demonstrate this faith in the prayerful material and emotional support we give one another. We share this faith in a Church rooted in Democratic principles, having a church constitution that gives laity full rights and due process in matters financial, administrative and material. OUR PARISH...firm in faith, Catholic, democratic, and OPEN to the growth that comes as more join our family.

MAKE YOURSELF RIGHT AT HOME!

EVANGELISM TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to increase attendance and membership to Holy Trinity Cathedral by fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, where individuals and families can explore and achieve spiritual fulfillment.

We are looking for ideas, any ideas, that can stimulate and increase participation in both the worship and parochial life of Holy Trinity Parish. Is there something you have seen, or experienced in another Church that you think might work well here? Have you had an idea for some time, but were afraid to share it? If you have an idea, no matter what it may be, please pray over it and then share it with either:

Mr. Ray Pieczarka 603-472-5874 or Bishop Paul 603-622-4524.

WELCOME - TO ALL VISITORS

You are most welcome and your presence is appreciated. All are invited to share in worship and, after Mass, our fellowship. If the people around you fail to say "hello" first, go up to them and say "Hi!" And don't feel awkward. We've all been in those shoes at one time or another. We want you to join us. So Welcome Home!

HTC Membership and Outreach Team Is Inviting YOU Join in an outreach

Our Parish Evangelism Team has reorganized. Known as the "Membership and Outreach" Team, our hope is that a number of our parishioners would like to be a part of an exciting opportunity to help develop programs and liturgies that will spread the Word to others outside our community, and also engage in Internal Evangelism within our parish family.

If YOU are interested in reaching out to others for the Lord you are invited to contact either Ray Pieczarka at (603) 472-5874 or Bishop Paul at 622-4524.

Sunday, April 20th -

There was no Cake and Coffee reception last Sunday due to the fact that it was Easter. We resume the Cake and Coffee reception. Our thanks to all who prepared the treats to be shared. Today's reception grew out of the Swieconka Meal that would be shared by the parish on the Sunday following Easter Sunday. We hope that everyone enjoys the additional items that are a part of today's buffet table.

As always, thanks also to all who donated towards cake & coffee offerings..

example, in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus appears to His disciples on Easter night and demonstrates His triumph over death by showing His wounded hands and side and passing the Spirit to them through His living breath. His demonstration is so convincing that it converts their fear to joy.

This Sunday's second reading contains a different type of visual proof, a spiritual vision of the risen Jesus. The vision includes symbolic imagery that emphasizes that the exalted Christ is truly present. He speaks with a voice like a trumpet; He is surrounded with gold lampstands reminiscent of the furnishings of the Jerusalem temple; He wears white and gold garments, like descriptions of the divine in Israelite tradition. These phenomena convince John that, although this is a mystic vision, He is somehow beholding the risen Christ.

Many disciples did not have visual evidence of Christ, however. As the generations passed, other evidence became important. The first reading speaks of the many who came to believe that Jesus was Lord simply because of the merciful deeds done in His Name. The story of Thomas in this Sunday's Gospel reading probably speaks to the experience of even more individuals. They believed entirely through faith in the Gospel. They may have been in danger of becoming second-class disciples who never knew the "real" Jesus, but John secures them a place as blessed individuals who could come to the truth by faith alone.

- How has the risen Christ revealed His presence to you?
- How can your mercy help another believe?
- How can you share the Good News with someone who needs it?

Practice of Hope

As we end the octave of Easter, we contemplate the mystery of the resurrection in the light of God's infinite mercy. The richness of God's mercy radiates through today's Scriptures and especially in Jesus' compassionate response toward Thomas's unbelief. The gift of mercy is explicitly given when Jesus commissions His disciples as ministers of divine mercy.

- Is there someone you know in need of your compassion or forgiveness? Pray for the Easter grace to show them your mercy today.

Questions

- In what ways are you, like the psalmist in today's responsorial psalm, giving thanks for the Lord's everlasting love? How will you express God's mercy and love to those you meet this week?
- What parts of John's vision (in the second reading) do you find comforting? What do you find confusing? What do we learn about Christ from this vision?
- In today's Gospel, how many times does Jesus offer peace to the disciples? What do you think He means when He says it? What is this peace that He offers? What do you mean when you offer people the sign of peace during Mass?

Family Activities

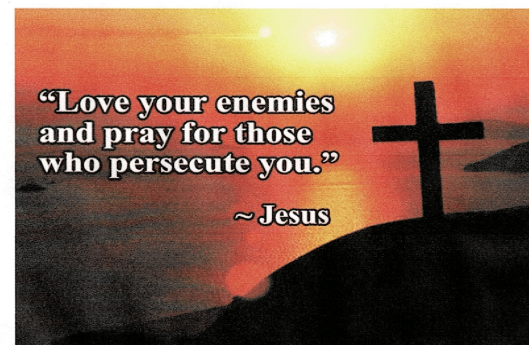

- Take the time today and throughout the week to extend mercy and forgiveness to those you meet—either verbally or quietly in your heart. Reflect on the ways in which Christ's mercy is working in your life.

- Many signs and wonders were being done by the apostles after the resurrection of Jesus. Signs and wonders continue in our day. They might not be dramatic events that draw crowds, but in hundreds of little ways, disciples of our time make God present for those around them. Describe some of these in your journal and give praise and thanks to God for the power of the resurrection.
- At times, as we walk the pilgrim journey, we experience doubt, as did Thomas in today's Gospel. Reflect with a friend or write in your journal about the times you have experienced doubt or a need for more assurance. In spite of Christ's admonition about seeing and believing, he is solicitous in providing the "evidence" Thomas needs. In what ways does Christ minister to your doubts — directly or indirectly? Rejoice, using the words, "My Lord and my God!"

April 2025 - Join us in prayer each Wednesday at noon, wherever you are:

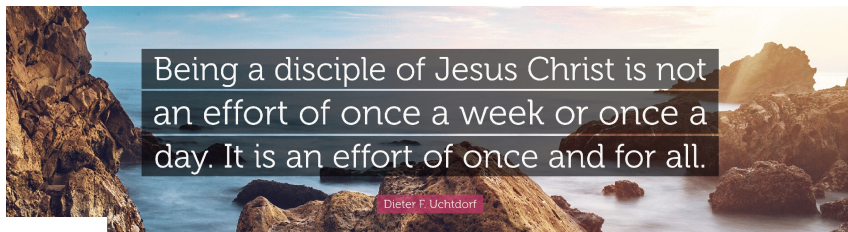

Lord Jesus Christ, Savior of the world, You taught us to love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us. Enlighten the hearts of our enemies that they may seek the peace that only You can give. Grant us the grace to forgive and to be forgiven. Enable us all to work toward justice and embrace Your love that reconciles us with one another. In Your blessed Name we pray.
Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name;
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

God Knows Each of Us

In each of our lives, we could imagine that all the afflictions those near us have endured, waking up each day to put their feet onto the ground and begin walking that heartache again. We live here, we are here, we hear, we listen to them. But there is, always, that fundamental truth. This is why Psalm 139 offers a comfort that I would characterize as mystical. The mystical is that which brings you right into the heart of God, and brings God right into the heart of you. Psalm 139 is, and always will be, a gorgeous piece of writing expressing the truth that not only does God know each of us, God has actually been alongside us, in ways no human being ever could, because it's beyond what any person can ever do. It's too much to ask. It's impossible..
