

Postcards from WESTMORELAND

Mike Carson of West Newton walks by a single railroad passenger car sitting along the Yough River Trail in West Newton. The car, which was brought to West Newton on Earth Day 1998, is owned by the Regional Trail

Postcards from WESTMORELAND

Mike Carson of West Newton walks by a single railroad passenger car sitting along the Yough River Trail in West Newton. The car, which was brought to West Newton on Earth Day 1998, is owned by the Regional Trail

Corp. and is set to be restored and made into an environmental science center for local schools to use by the end of next summer.

— Eric Schmadel photo