

Priceless Wonder

July 15, 2001

Geological scrapbook tells history drip by drip

Rail-trail organizers have moved to protect land around this 37-foot lime deposit, called a tufa. The rare formation, located a half-mile south of Cedar Creek Park in Rostraver Township, is at least 18,000 years old.

Sean Stipp/Tribune-Review