GREYSON (cont.)

How are you doing today baby girl?

SCARLET

I wish you wouldn't call me that.

GREYSON

I've always called you that.

SCARLET

I'm not a baby anymore dad.

GREYSON

You will always be my baby girl.

SCARLET

Oh dad!

ALICE

Are you and Andrew going anywhere this weekend?

SCARLET

I don't know mom, maybe just to the movies.

ALICE

Well, if you do, be sure and be home before midnight. You know the roads aren't safe after that.

SCARLET

I know the rules mom.

GREYSON

That's when all the drunks start leaving the bars.

ALICE

Oh, Greyson, don't say that. I don't like thinking about it.

GREYSON

I'm just trying to wake up Scarlet to the dangers of being out late.

SCARLET

Don't worry Dad. Andrew and I won't be out that late.
