Job Description

Be responsible for receiving and disbursing money, using electronic scanners, cash registers, or related equipment, processing credit or debit card transactions and validating checks, and replacing required products such as utensils, condiments, drinks, and cups as needed.

Report directly to the Food and Beverage Supervisor.

May be required to lift up to 40 lbs.

On the job training is provided.

Requirements

At least six (6) months of experience in a high-volume food and beverage environment at a high-end restaurant, resort, or private club.

Basic computer skills required.

Travel is not required.

Wages & Reimbursements

Wage: $12.63 - $14.00 per hour, paid bi-weekly.

Overtime is available at $18.95 - $21.00 per hour.

Daily transportation to and from workplace is provided for workers who live in employee housing.

Schedule: 35 hours per week. Work schedule can vary and can include evening and weekend hours. Work may be performed on any day of the week from Monday through Sunday. Work hours are from 8am to 3pm and may vary.

Housing is offered and optional on a first-comes-first-served basis. Cost of housing, if accepted, is $125 per week. If used, total cost of housing will be paid directly to employer by employee. A non-refundable $125 security deposit is required to be paid directly to employer upon acceptance of housing.

Additional & optional benefits may be offered for worker's sole benefits, including but not limited to 401K.

All deductions from paycheck required by laws will be made.

The employer will provide workers at no charge all tools, supplies, and equipment required to perform the job.

Other Reimbursement

Employer to reimburse the worker first workweek for all visa application fees, visa processing fees, border crossing & other related fees mandated by the government and incurred by the worker (but not including passport expenses, agency's fees, legal fees, or other charges primarily for the worker's benefits), at no cost to worker.

If the worker completes 50% of the work contract period, employer will reimburse the worker for transportation and subsistence from the place of recruitment to the place of work. Upon completion of the work contract or where the worker is dismissed earlier, employer will provide or pay for the worker's reasonable costs of return transportation and subsistence back home or to the place the worker originally departed to work, except where the worker will not return due to subsequent employment with another employer. The amount of transportation payment or reimbursement and lodging as necessary will be equal to the most economical and reasonable common carrier for the distances involved.

Daily subsistence will be provided at a rate of $12.68 per day during travel to a maximum of $55 per day with receipts. Reimbursement for this will be paid out on the first pay day following 50% completion of the work contract period.
