LA REVUE NEGRE II

A CANNABIS EXPERIENCE

Inspired by Josephine Baker

An immersive, glitzy, glamorous, cannabis-infused celebration of Black History Month. This show features an all BIPOC identifying cast and is currently the only running Black woman produced and casted Burlesque variety show in NYC.

Josephine Baker returns for one night only to inspire a night of burlesque, cirque, live jazz, swing, and hip hop. Cannabis edibles celebrating the end of prohibition will be on-hand and available to all.

Jazz, the granddaddy of hip hop, is a seminal invention of American Black Culture. We honor jazz musicians from Louis Armstrong to Cab Calloway, early champions for the decriminalization of Marijuana. Dress to impress and come ready to party. We will be providing 5-10 different kinds of bite-sized infused and non-infused edibles. Savory, appetizers, and sweets. Private infused bottle for VIPs, special products, and merch with the VIP goody bag.'

Wiz Khalifa - the multi-platinum-selling, GRAMMY and Golden Globe nominated Rap icon, Khalifa Kush Canna-mogul - is the brilliance of our upcoming Honeysuckle February print edition cover shoot. We were there in the room, the first time Wiz laid hands on his first LEGALLY GROWN Khalifa Kush in the state of California. if that isn't history in the making, then we don't know what is.
