January 2019

"Some succeed because they are destined to, but most succeed because they are determined to." - Henry Van Dyke

"The rider must listen into the horse, in order to judge when the moment for an aid has come, which aid is needed and how intense it must be. He must know how to create or wait for the right circumstances, to prepare the horse." ~ Gustav von Dreyhausen

"It is important in training to always start with easy exercises and also to end with easy exercises that the rider and horse understand. This helps build confidence in both horse and rider." -

New ADA Resource Directory Online

ADA would like to announce our new online resource directory on our website www.alphadressage.org. This is a great opportunity to advertise your business and support ADA. For just $50 per year we will share an image of your business card on the web. Please share blank forms with your suppliers (feed, vet, farrier, tack, etc.) and encourage them to participate. Let's create a comprehensive directory of services that will help everyone. A blank form is at the end of the newsletter for your convenience.

Safe Sport Policy Reminder

The USDF has adopted the USEF Safe Sport Policy, promoting the safety and welfare of horses and riders. The intent of the USDF Safe Sport Initiative is to provide information, resources, and a protocol so that all members of the equestrian community have awareness, tools, and a support structure to ensure a safe and positive environment for equestrians to develop their skills.

The USEF and USDF depends on the eyes and ears of its athletes, coaches, and designees to support its Safe Sport policies. It is requested that all who participate in equestrian sport become familiar with the content of the Safe Sport Policy Handbook and be mindful of its guidelines during training sessions and competitions.

Members of the equestrian community are also encouraged to complete the Safe Sport module to further their education in this area. This module is open to anyone and is free of charge.

For further information on the USDF Safe Sport Initiative, contact safesport@usdf.org.

For further information on the USEF Safe Sport Policy, visit the USEF Website or contact a member of the Athlete Protection Team.
