Tammy Hales

Saturday, May 11th, 2024

Time: 9:30 am to 10:30am

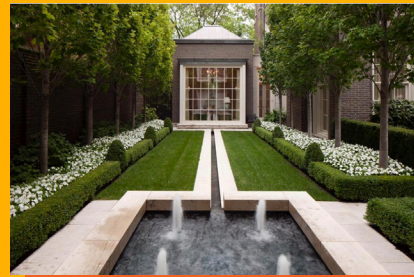

Houseplants have made a comeback, whether for aesthetics or wellness, and they are at their peak of popularity. Growing indoor plants can be a challenge but with a solid understanding of their cultural requirements, you can have healthy and beautiful indoor plants. This session covers the basics—soils, light, humidity, watering, repotting, fertilizing, and proper containers.

Selecting the right plant for the right place is the key to success with houseplants. You will learn about easy-care plants, as well as plants for small and large spaces and the hottest new trends.

The Edgemont House, located in historic Park Hill, celebrates a rich legacy of social and business gatherings in North Little Rock. Constructed in 1927, the private palatial garden estate is home to Chris H. Olsen. Under his vision, The Edgemont House has been restored to its original splendor as he once again welcomes guests. Chris chose the name The Edgemont House after the original name of the neighborhood when it was developed by the Matthews Company in the 1920's.
