Chaperone to Delegate Guidelines - 2024

Chaperones shall follow the rules and guidelines set forth for delegates plus the following:

Cell Phones – Cell Phones are allowed. Inform the Executive Director of your cell phone number.

Delegate Information – A binder with a copy of each delegate registration packet is provided for the Tour Leaders. Inform the Tour Leader and Executive Director of any special needs of your delegate.

Age – Chaperones must be a minimum age of 30.

Identification – A valid PASSPORT is required for everyone participating in the program.

Demeanor – Chaperones are asked to conduct themselves in a manner that is always worthy of respect.

- Discipline Tour Leaders maintain a sincere and friendly relationship between other leaders, delegates, chaperones and staff members throughout the Tour. This is a non-smoking, drug and alcohol-free tour. Anyone unwilling to cooperate in the entire program and/or refusal to follow the rules will be sent home immediately at their expense.
- Financial It is the responsibility of the Jurisdiction or Sponsoring Lodge or the Chaperone to pay the Chaperone Fee and costs/expenses of the Tour as directed by the Board of Directors and for transportation to and from the starting point of the Tour. Transportation fee to and from starting point of tour shall be arranged in conjunction with the Program Executive Director.
- Loyalty Chaperones shall cooperate with the Tour Leader, staff and Executive Director in order to guarantee the success of the Tour. The trip is one of enjoyment, educational fulfillment and friendship. Being cooperative is a must.
- Physical Chaperones must be in good physical condition and healthy. There are days when you will walk long distances.
- Security Check Points These may occur during any tour of a site, example: 911 Museum, United Nations Building, Washington DC, Ottawa, Philadelphia sites. If sites will not allow backpacks, cell phones, bottled water, etc., someone may have to watch over these items until that tour is over or if the bus is close by, return and place on the bus, but do not miss any assigned timed tour or event.
- Room Checks It will be mandatory that Tour Leaders make nightly bed checks, even if awakening sleeping delegates. Mixed gender is never allowed in a hotel room. Delegates may not swap rooms.
- Communication Communication between delegates, chaperones and tour leaders is a must. Sometimes the delegates will be away from the bus or the tour leader, so in an emergency there must be contact. Your cell phone number should be given to the tour leader. Chaperones can text the tour leader when he/she is needed.
- Lodging and Meals All lodging has been pre-arranged and pre-paid by the Executive Director. As noted on the itinerary some meals have been previously pre-arranged and pre-paid by the Executive Director. If any problem arises with any arrangements, contact the Executive Director immediately.
- Program Staff The Executive Director and Staff are the primary leadership position with the tour bus leaders following the directions of the Executive Director and Staff. Any concerns should be addressed to the Executive Director.
- Traveling to Canada No Pictures during the time of crossing. Everyone must have their cell phones off and in their pocket.
- Laundry Every effort will be made for a time and place to do laundry. Check with the Tour Leader.
- Medical Situations If a medical situation occurs, take care of the situation first. When able; call the Tour Leader, who will then call the Executive Director to inform of the situation. Keep notes of what occurred and how resolved. The Tour Leader and the Executive Director will discuss the best way to handle the situation and contact of the parents/guardians. At no time may you dispense medication except to your chaperoned Delegate.
- Last Day Loading When you are preparing for your last day, load the luggage in the cargo hold according to the airline stops at the airport.

Remember: this is an educational experience, not a vacation or a shopping excursion for either Tour Leaders, Delegates or Chaperones.
