

WHAT TO BRING FOR TYPE 1 FUN

Type 1 fun is enjoyable while it's happening. Also known simply as fun.

THE REALLY IMPORTANT STUFF
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Directions to Kulapalooza and contact phone numbers in case you're running late (360-524-1278)</li> </ul> Please note that the Internet connection and cellphone service at the North Cascades Environmental Learning Center is spotty. Please bring directions and the Kulapalooza phone number with you.
ESSENTIAL GEAR FOR THE WEEKEND
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Personal Items and toiletries including: shampoo, toothbrush, toothpaste, soap, meds, towel, period kits, shower shoes/flip flops, etc.</li> <li>• Synthetic/Wool socks, sports bra and underwear</li> <li>• Short sleeve synthetic/wool shirt</li> <li>• Long sleeve synthetic /wool shirt</li> <li>• Hiking pants / long johns / tights, quick dry are best</li> <li>• Warm Jacket / Fleece or puffy jacket / vest</li> <li>• Warm hat and liner gloves</li> <li>• Rain Gear: rain pants, rain jacket with hood (most classes are held rain or shine)</li> <li>• Hiking shoes that have some miles already on them</li> </ul>
INSIDE YOUR DAYPACK FUN STUFF
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Camera</li> <li>• Sunglasses, sunscreen, bug spray, chapstick</li> <li>• Headlamp</li> <li>• Insulated coffee/tea thermos / Water bottle</li> <li>• Journal/pencil</li> <li>• Your "must have" snacks/11th essential</li> </ul>

*Mornings and evenings may be cold in September and October. Be prepared to dress in layers.
If rain is in the forecast, an extra jacket is recommended.*