

New Website!

Our new website is up and running!

Over the past several weeks, we have been working tirelessly to provide a more streamlined experience for our website visitors. We have updated the design to be more user-friendly, as well as mobile/device-friendly.

On Demand

Along with this update, we have also migrated all of the "On Demand" audio programs to podcasting format. Our program is now available over 8 different podcasting platforms, including our former Itunes availability.

Feel free to listen from your favorite podcasting app, or check out the list of apps available from the "On Demand" page and choose the one you like best. As always, there is *no charge to listen to or download our podcasts.

Looking for an older TTR audio Transmission? Our archives are also available across all podcasting platforms.

**Please note that some podcasting platforms may charge a fee to download apps* or for membership to access podcasts. TTR does not receive any contribution for these charges. However, most platforms are free of charge (with the exception of optional upgrades.) Please choose your podcasting apps wisely.

Blog

Missing the articles on the website? They can now be found at the "Blog" link at the top of the home page. Subscribe to get updates each time a new blog is posted.

While you are at the home page, be sure to check out TruthWear, TruthShare, our Statement of Faith, and also learn about all of the ways you can connect with us via social media.

---

Featured Bible Question

Q: Hey Trey. I don't know if you remember me. Years back you helped me understand the difference between the bride of Christ and the body of Christ. That was the conversation that led me to rightly dividing the Word.

I'm still thankful I found you and always will be. I was wondering if we could talk through a couple scripture that I'm trying to figure out.

2 Corinthians 5:19

To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

Galatians 3:22

But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

We don't have to be saved to not have our sins imputed to us. Jesus did that with his sacrifice. It's the all under sin part in Galatians and the fact that both is "hath" that is tripping me up. Maybe I don't understand the timing of both or maybe my definition are wrong. Any light you can shed would be great appreciated. Thank you.

A: When reading Galatians 3, we must understand that this is speaking of ALL (both Jew and Gentile) as being concluded under sin, so that the Gospel can then be offered to ALL (and not Israel only.)

Before Paul – the salvation was of the Jews (John 4:22.)

Galatians 3:22 parallels perfectly with Romans 3:9, and leads you directly to 2 Corinthians 5:14 (part of the explanation of God's reconciliation.)

Because of Israel's sin of rejecting their Messiah – ALL (Both Jew and Gentile) WERE (HATH BEEN) concluded DEAD. (1 Corinthians 15:22)

-Clean Slate. Dead men don't sin. (Romans 6:7)

So everyone is DEAD in Adam (after the flesh) until they believe the Gospel of our Salvation.

-which is why our own righteousness is as filthy rags to God – dead flesh creates dead works.

However, when we believe the gospel, 2 Tim. 2:11 applies to us instead.

Before Paul's gospel – the Jews had the "advantage" with God. But now – we are on a level field.

Gentiles were already "dead" in Adam – Now Jews are too.

"But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe."

It was God's will for the entire world to be saved through the nation Israel, (John 4:22) but because they rejected their Messiah – ALL (Both Jew and Gentile) WERE (HATH BEEN) concluded DEAD in Adam.

This was what "the scripture hath" CONCLUDED, and is why it was necessary for Christ to come and die for the sins of the world.

A parallel verse is:

Rom 3:25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God sins that are past = the sin that all were concluded under.

I see the order like this:

1. ALL were concluded under sin (when Christ was crucified)
2. The sin that ALL were concluded under was then paid for on the cross (because of His death)
3. (a.) Those who believe the gospel are made alive in Christ (resurrected with Him.) (b.) Those who do not believe the gospel remain DEAD in their own self-righteousness.

-Dead men do not sin – but dead men can't do any GOOD works, either.

The reason the resurrection is so vital is because without it, we'd still just be concluded dead.

---

Latest TTR Transmission

Part 3 of our series "The Truth About The Tithe Lie" is now available across the podcasting platforms as well as on YouTube. If you haven't listened to Parts 1 & 2, please be sure to check them out!

---

A Message From A Listener

Years of searching and years of empty pursuits to find the answers that religion had left me with have been replaced by God's wonderful grace and His precious word Jesus Christ finished a work on the cross that only He could finish. He left no room for questions or improvements concerning His payment for our sins. Man in his religious attempt to please God through his own efforts is the only reason people are left to question The Finished Cross Work of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. When we follow the writings of our apostle Paul we quickly learn how dear the message of the cross was to him. I too now have seen the cross in a different light . My faith in what Jesus DID is so strong that I proclaim "I will live in the gospel that saved me and I will die in the gospel that saved me!" If I don't make it to heaven it will be because Jesus did not do enough to get me there. In that case, we will all cry around the camp fires of hell. Jesus paid it all! Not one thing more is needed! He only needs you to receive the free gift that has been provided by His death, burial and resurrection. Failing to do so is the only reason a person will go to hell. There's nothing more that can be done to pay for the sin of man. If the finished work of the cross did not take away your sin then you have no way to get to heaven. The importance of rightly dividing the word of truth is so glaring when you have seen the heart of man striving to stretch scripture from one dispensation to the other to cover his denominational views. It's sickening to think about how many souls are in hell today because they loved their pastor, denomination, friends and fellowship with all sincerity but never understood that Jesus Christ paid for everything that stood between them and a Holy God. Yet they followed the wisdom of man and were blinded to the truth of the gospel that saves today. Glory to God I will rest in The Finished Work of My Dear Saviour! Thank you Lord ! Thank you for giving up your life and shedding your precious blood for a no good for nothing hell deserving sinner like me!

Peace, Joy, Life Everlasting

- Don

---

Compare The Verses

We are working diligently to put Compare The Verses in print form. Once the book goes through its final edit, we plan to make it available through Amazon/Kindle for eReaders. After that transition has taken place, it will also be available to order in printed book form through Amazon. Until then, the current version is available at TruthTimeRadio.com.

Find Us On YouTube!

Find all of our Radio Programs and Truth Shots on our YouTube Channel

Don't forget to subscribe while you're there!

GraceRightlyAppliedChangesEverything
Truth Time Radio

©2019 Truth Time Radio |

Web Version

Preferences

Forward

Unsubscribe

Powered by
GoDaddy Email Marketing®