

Frances Perkins Center: VIP tour of the Brick House & FPC Collection!

"Behind the scenes" VIP access to parts of the Frances Perkins National Monument not currently open to the public.

FRANCES PERKINS CENTER

While the public summer visitor experience at the Frances Perkins National Monument includes the Welcome Center and Homestead Barn, the Homestead Brick House remains closed for active collections and archival work—making an off-season, VIP tour with the Frances Perkins Center a one-of-a-kind experience. On your private tour during the fall/winter months, speak directly with FPC's Curator and Executive Director about Maine's newest national monument, the National Park Service partnership, the history of the home, ongoing collections and archival work, and much more!
