TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

Margdarshi, a skill development venture of Gyan Jyoti Foundation has conducted a one day workshop on overall skill development for English Teachers on June 13, 2015 at Bangalore. This one day session helped the participants to:

- Understand techniques
- To improve empathy & team building
- Ways to enhance vocabulary & word power
- Have effective communication.

The participants also learned techniques to think creatively and were exposed to mind mapping exercises. The teachers appreciated the workshop content and expressed their interest to implement the techniques and enhance the learning experience of the students.

IMPLEMENTATION:

1. Teachers who attended the workshop on 'English Communication' will conduct an orientation programme for the other staff members every Saturday
2. Tentative schedule is for a month starting from 27th June.
3. In turn, the teachers will select 5 students from each class and train them based on the knowledge they have gained from the workshop.
4. The videos of aspirers like Malala Yousafzai, Gururaj Girimagi will be downloaded and shown to students.
