Brother Ken and Sister Rená McAllister founded the Ken & Rená McAllister School of Music in 2010, dedicated to teaching our children shape notes, harmony, and a love of singing for the Lord in our churches. As KRMSM has continued to grow over the years, so have the financial demands of hosting this exceptional music camp. Each year, we've rented various facilities, incurring significant costs with no permanent home. However, in 2023, we were blessed to acquire our own facility to host the camp annually. As we prepare for Music Camp 2024, we're excited to announce two separate weeks: May 27 - May 31 and July 8 - July 12.

From the beginning, KRMSM has never charged attendees, and we're committed to maintaining this tradition. For the upcoming 2024 camp, we anticipate welcoming over 200 attendees across the two weeks, providing all meals and some housing accommodations throughout the week. We rely entirely on donations and sponsorships to fulfill the financial obligations associated with our facility and to sustain our growth. With this in mind, we warmly invite you to join us in supporting KRMSM!

One meaningful way to show your support and promote your business within the holiness church community is by considering ads or sponsorships in the Holiness Church Directory, scheduled for publication in fall 2024. These sponsorships will be showcased at Music Camp, featured in over 1000 church directories, and included in the KRMSM yearbook! KRMSM is a 501-C3 accredited non-profit, ensuring that all donations receive a tax-exempt receipt.

Attached, you'll find the sponsorship form detailing various options. We kindly request that you indicate your preferred sponsorship opportunities, as we look forward to collaborating with you to promote both your business and KRMSM together.

Sincerely,

Camille Foreman
