

Mount Holyoke College Class of 1965 In Memoriam

Aida Mendoza Cuba

Our classmate, Aida Mendoza Cuba, died November 8, 2010 in Peru. She was a professor of the faculty of arts and humanities and was in charge of the Department of Linguistic Research Institute at the Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos in Peru. In addition to her MHC BA degree, she received a BA in Education from the Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos and a Masters of Arts (Applied Linguistics) from the University of Ottawa (Canada). She also studied linguistics and Hispanic dialectology at the Instituto Caro y Cuervo, Bogata and set design at the National Institute of Dramatic Art. Her obituary states that she was one of their most admired and beloved teachers and that the academic community recognized her scholarship and research. She also published widely.
